Re: Darrell Burgess v. State
Appellate Case No. 2021-001324

Dear Petitioner:

This Court has received the notice of appeal in the above post-conviction relief action, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

This Court has also received your written explanation pursuant to Rule 243(c) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules; however, since you have filed multiple post-conviction relief applications challenging the underlying criminal conviction, the Court, if it determines that you have failed to provide an adequate explanation under Rule 243(c), SCACR, may decide to prohibit you from filing a post-conviction relief application, habeas corpus action or any other action, motion or petition in the circuit court challenging this conviction and sentence (including a motion under Rule 29 of the South Carolina Rules of Criminal Procedure) without first obtaining the permission of this Court to do so. If you believe that there is a reason(s) why such a prohibition should not be imposed on future filings by you in the circuit court, those reasons should be provided within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Patricia A. Howard

CLERK
