Re: William Coleman v. The State – Appellate Case No. 2021-001179

Dear Mr. Coleman:

The Chief Appellate Defender has reviewed the Affidavit of Indigency for the above case and has approved for this office to perfect the appeal for Mr. Coleman. Please understand that our agreement to represent him as a non-incarcerated client includes a continuing obligation to update this office on your indigency status if you become employed or receive royalties. We are waiting for the court reporter to provide us with a copy of your transcript, which will take at least two months and probably longer as they are allowed several thirty (30) day extensions. This office does not control the court reporters.

Your case will not be assigned to an attorney until we receive the transcript. Upon receipt of the transcript, the attorney will then write you a letter explaining the appellate process and how you may assist in handling your appeal. You will receive a copy of your transcript and all documents filed in connection with your case.

Until your case has been assigned to an attorney, you may direct all correspondences to me. We look forward to representing you and hope for a favorable result.

Sincerely,

Adriane Burk
Legal Services Coordinator
