Appellant Molly Morphew (herein "Appellant"), respectfully submits this notice of motion and motion respectfully asking this Court for a 15-day extension to serve the Record on Appeal and subsequently, a 30-day extension of time for the filing of Appellant's final Briefs and Record on Appeal in this Court due the reasons below.

An immediate family member permanently residing with Appellant has been very recently diagnosed with Stage 3 Cancer, possibly Stage 4, depending on further testing and results. Plus, a separate issue of same family member's physical inability to eat solid food for over 3 months, which the cause has not yet been diagnosed, making the situation at this time, with possible unscheduled surgeries/hospital stays, critical. Radiation/Chemo treatments started yesterday, and will continue daily for six (6) weeks. Appellant is the sole caregiver and supporter of her family, and with the daily 1-hour drive to and from the Cancer Center, 3-hour treatments and homecare, on top of Appellant's daily work load, not to mention the substantial stress and anxiety at this time, Appellant feels this minimal extension is warranted under the circumstances, and does not prejudice Respondents.

Thank you in advance for your consideration during this time.

Respectfully Submitted,

Molly M. Morphew, pro se
