Good morning Ms. Thompson,

I truly apologize as I must have overlooked that email. I will be the arguing counsel in this matter. I have a call in to Ms. Rovers on the allocation of time for the Respondents' arguments. Once that has been agreed upon we will let you know as quickly as possible.

Best,

Matthew C. LaFave

Subject: Fountain v. Fred's

Good morning,

Per our records, Mr. LaFave, you have not verified whether or not you will be arguing counsel in this matter or if someone else will be joining you to argue. We will need a response in writing please. Also, as there are two respondents, the Court also needs to know how you intend to split the argument time, if you intend to do so. Please file something with this Court as quickly as possible, as this is being heard next week.

Sincerely,

Ashli Thompson
