MOTION TO REQUEST EXTENSION OF TIME

Comes now the undersigned attorney and does move before this Court for an Order allowing the Appellant to be granted an Extension of Time to File a Statement of the Issues of Appeal in this case. This document is a critical initial step for Appellant's Appeal and the undersigned is requesting additional time to prepare the document on Appellant's behalf. The undersigned attorney received the letter from the Court requesting the statement of issues on April 15, 2013. The letter was dated April 8, 2013. It states that the Appellant must respond and file the Statement of issues within 10 days of the letter. The undersigned attorney was in court every day after April 15, 2013 and has not had adequate time to prepare the document. Additionally, she needs to meet with Appellant at the South Carolina Department of Corrections to discuss the Appellant's case and explain the significance of the Statement of Issues in his case.

Appellant was transferred from the Charleston County Detention Center directly after he was sentenced, so the undersigned has had no opportunity to have a meaningful conversation with Appellant about this Appeal.

Appellant would respectfully request that this Court this Motion and order additional time for him to file the Statement of Issues in his case.
