SC Court of Appeals

ORDER

EXTENSION OF TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

This matter came before me on Monday, November 29, 2021 at 4:00 p.m. on the Plaintiff's Motion for Temporary Injunction. Present were the Plaintiff, Jaylin's Properties, LLC, and its counsel, Matthew A. Williamson of the Sumter County Bar. The Defendants were not present.

At the outset of the hearing, Mr. Williamson informed the Court that the Defendants were avoiding service and that his process server had attempted service at the residence no less than seven (7) times. Mr. Williamson informed the Court that at least two different individuals who are believed to be two of the Defendants came to the door when the process server knocked but they would not open the door and would not identify themselves.

Mr. Williamson then provided background information on the case and why the Plaintiff originally requested a Temporary Restraining Order and a Temporary Injunction in this matter.

After providing this information, Mr. Williamson asked again that the Temporary Injunction to be granted, or in the alternative due to the Defendants evading service, for the Temporary Restraining Order to be extended and for service to be accomplished by posting all pleadings on the door of the property in question. After a short deliberation, the Court denied the Motion for the Temporary Injunction but granted the Motion to Extend the Temporary Restraining Order and the Motion to allow for service by posting. Therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Temporary Restraining Order entered on November 19, 2021, shall remain in effect until December 3, 2021, at 9:30 a.m. at which time this Court will reconvene to hear the Plaintiff's Motion for Temporary Injunction.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED!
