Subject: Petition of Redress of Grievances to the Court Case # 2020000853

To whom it may concern,

"I am in my US Constitutional rights dated back to July 4, 1776 by the founders of our great nation these United States of America to file a petition done so as a Petition of Redress of Grievances when harm has been done to you as a citizen, that is within my right by law." kwc

"That I have the unalienable right to do so even though you may try to silence my voice I can request and petition to voice the wrongs done to me. That is my Constitutional right that cannot be infringed upon by any office of law. My rights I served my country to enable those rights to others and no one can abridge those rights now!" kwc

I conclude in saying that the right to petition is a US Constitutional right by law...

Sincerely,

Kelvin W Crosby
