Dear Shelby:

Last month, the Court asked the parties to inform by November 22 whether there were any conflicts with certain dates in March of 2022 for possible oral argument in this case. Although our email response to the Court regarding our availability was filed around November 10, we do not see a filed response from opposing counsel.

Are you now able to confirm that oral argument, if scheduled, will take place in March of 2022, as reflected in the Court's letter? Please let me know at your earliest convenience.

Thank you,

Sean Michael Bolchoz
