Dear Clerk of the Court of Appeals:

Pursuant to Rules 240(f) and 241 SCACR providing for a Reply, the timing for a Reply to the anticipated Response to Appellant's Petition for an Emergency Writ would normally be 5 days. The Court's Order was silent on the timing of a Reply. Given that I only had 30 minutes to complete the Petition, the Appellant anticipates the necessity of a Reply in order to have the same opportunity the Respondent has had to brief the issues to be considered by the Appellate Court.

As such, Appellant request the Court to set a time should it prefer a shorter time for a Reply than one provided by the Rules.

Respectfully submitted,

James
