Re: James A. Giles V. State

Appellate Case NO. 2020-000333

Dear Ms. Kitchings

ON October 18, 2021 Your office response to My letter dated October 6, 2021, inquiring about the status of the Motion to relieve Counsel.

Your office stated, the the Court did received a response from My Attorney James R. Falk, And the Motion Was being reviewed, And I Will receive a Notice from the Court ONCE the Motion has been acted ON, ....

Ms. Kitchings, I have some CONCERNS, about that Motion to relieve Counsel, ....

First: I Never file a Motion to relieve Counsel, but I did write the supreme court, about Mr. Falk, concerning his ineffective representation, because Mr. Falk have been My Attorney over two (2) Years, AND I only spoke with Mr. Falk one (1) time, AND Mr. Falk have Never discuss My case with me before he file his brief in the South Carolina Court of Appeal, so Yes I did want Mr. Falk remove from My Case, Second, I Never did receive a Copy of that Motion to relieve Counsel, so Will Your office, Please send Me a Copy of that Motion to relieve Counsel, so I can see, what that Motion is consist of. Ms. Kitchings in My last two (2) letters to Your office, I requested for the exact same information, but Your office, did Not send Me that information.

Third, once again Will Your office Please tell Me, the status on My Appeal, due to the fact, that I got convicted in 2007, and Now it is about to be 2022, AND I still have Not Completed all of My lower Court Remedies of My first Post Conviction relief Application AND that is absurd, because I only have around 18 Months before I Max-out My twenty (20) Year sentence,

Fourth, I really do Need to Know?..... is Mr. James K. Falk still My Attorney, because I would like to Motion the Court for recognize or Bail Pending Appeal.....

Thanks
James A. Giles
