RE: Richie D. Barnes vs. James Reese; Appellate Case No.: 2018-002157

Dear Ms. Allen:

I'm not aware that a response to Appellant's Motion to Dismiss Respondent's Judgment for Alleged Damages and Reversal of the Lower Court Order is required, but in case it is, this letter is to point out that said Motion is nothing more than a rant, rehashing previously-made arguments. It contains no new arguments, except for a claim for monetary relief, which is raised for the first time.

As of today, this appeal is three (3) years old. It is time for the jury's decision to be affirmed.

Sincerely,

Leonard R. Jordan, Jr.
