Re: Glover, Lareese v. First Financial
Appellate Case No. 2011-198086

Dear Counsel:

Our records indicate that the transcript was requested by your previous counsel on September 23, 2011 and the court reporter information was sent to you by your previous counsel on July 9, 2012. We have included a copy of these letters for your review.

Within ten days of the date of this letter, you must provide proof you have made payment arrangements for the transcript with the court reporter, Ms. Amanda Heffenden, and copy all parties of the appeal along with the Office of Court Administration. Additionally, you must provide proof you served your letter dated February 5, 2013 on the opposing party. If you fail to provide the requested information, your appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

RE: Appeal No.: 2011198086

Dear Ms. Glover,

Enclosed is information that will assist you with your pro se appeal matter which has been sent to you several times, the most recently on April 24, 2012. I have also enclosed copies of letters sent to you in September, October and November 2011 which provides the information you need to order the transcript of the Summary Judgment Hearing.

To order the transcript, you will need the information on the letter to Ms. Haffenden dated September 23, 2011. The entire process of how to appeal pro se is fully explained on the South Carolina Circuit Court website. This is important information and you should review it as soon as possible.

All of the documents we possessed that related to either your appeal or the original case were copied and placed in the file that you retrieved from our office in November, 2011. I would suggest you consult that file for future documents relating to your pro se appeal.

Very truly yours,

Jennifer Munter Stark
