Re: Patricia Damico v. Lennar Carolinas
Appellate Case No. 2020-001048

Dear Counsel:

This responds to your correspondence of December 13, 2021. This letter is to clarify that this Court is not restricting attendance at oral argument to counsel making arguments. As set forth in this Court's letter of December 2, 2021, two counsel for each party may be present in the Supreme Court Building for the arguments. As an alternative to attending the arguments live, attorneys not participating in arguments may live-stream the arguments using the link posted on our website, at <https://sccourts.org/SCvideo/>.

As to any request for time to respond at the arguments (in addition to the time already allocated to the parties), must be made in the form of a motion. Further, if the respondents intend to split time between lawyers, the respondents should notify this court before the arguments begin on February 1, 2021.

Very truly yours,

Patricia A. Howard

CLERK
