Dear, Honorable Patricia A. Howard:

This responds to your recent letter responding to my email. I was not seeking for your office or The Supreme Court Of South Carolina, to review the decision on the things that you listed in your letter, but I was stating those things, to show the people and the processes that I have been dealing with wherein these departments have not been doing their jobs in accordance with the facts, proofs, material and knowledge that I had provided with honesty and integrity in accordance with their oaths, vows, and fiduciary duties that comes along with their jobs. Your Honor, what I'm asking you and your office to do is to hold these people their departments ACCOUNTABLE or just tell me where to go in order to find the agency or department that will hold them ACCOUNTABLE. Your Honor, when and if people in these very important positions intentionally do not do their jobs to protect someone or something in a Judicial Process, that is Obstruction of Justice. Again, referring to your letter I have been contacting these offices and have spoken with Chief persons in these Offices, but now it seems as if they are just trying to ignore me so that I will just go away. This is the reason I have been contacting you and this department.

Thank you, Your Honor please HELP ME.
