This matter comes before this Court upon Motion of Condemnor South Carolina Electric & Gas Company (“SCE&G”), and with the consent of Barbara A. Todd (“Landowner”), pursuant to Rule 41(a)(2) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, for an Order ending this case as to all of the parties where this case has been resolved pursuant to the Code of Laws of South Carolina, § 28-2-40 (1976, as amended).

Condemnor SCE&G’s plans as referred to in the Condemnation Notice and Tender of Payment (the “Condemnation Notice”) filed in this action, are specifically made a part hereof by reference, and together with the recitations in the Condemnation Notice, reflect and describe the property of Landowner and the right of way, interest and rights acquired by Condemnor SCE&G.

It also appears Condemnor SCE&G and Landowner agree that Eighteen Thousand and 00/100 ($18,000.00) Dollars is just compensation for Condemnor SCE&G's condemnation and acquisition of the easement and other rights as set forth in the Condemnation Notice, and for any special damages, and that such just compensation is to be paid to Landowner pursuant to the agreement with the Condemnor.

It further appears that Condemnor SCE&G and Landowner agree that this case has been settled as between them, and should be ended and dismissed as to Landowner.

It further appears that SCE&G provided proper notice to the remaining Other Condemnees, and that no appearances have been made on their behalves as of the date of this Order.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED:

1. This case is ended and dismissed as to all parties, with prejudice as to Barbara A. Todd;
2. Condemnor SCE&G shall pay Landowner the sum of EIGHTEEN THOUSAND AND 00/100THS ($18,000.00) DOLLARS. Landowner shall provide SCE&G with an executed Agreement of Settlement and Release in the form heretofore agreed to by the parties, and a Federal Taxpayer Identification Number Information Form, which form shall reflect Landowner's Federal Taxpayer Identification Number (EIN) Number;
3. The Clerk of Court shall return to the Condemnor SCE&G any portion of the tender of payment on deposit with the Clerk of Court plus interest, if any, by check made payable to South Carolina Electric & Gas Company, and mailed to Gregory M. Alford, Alford Law Firm, LLC, P.O. Box 8008, Hilton Head Island, South Carolina 29938;

4. The Clerk of Court shall annotate the Condemnation Notice and file the same with the Register of Deeds for Horry County, duly indexed, as provided by law for the recording and indexing of deeds, showing the transfer to SCE&G of the easement interest in the subject property, such filing being exempt from filing fees as provided by South Carolina Code of Laws, §12-24-40 (Cum. Supp. 1997); and

5. The Clerk shall mail the recorded Annotated Notice of Condemnation to Gregory M. Alford, Alford Law Firm, LLC, P.O. Box 8008, Hilton Head Island, SC 29928.

- (b) Together with the right from time to time to redesign, rebuilt or alter said pipe lines and to install such additional pipe lines, apparatus and equipment as

Condemnor may at any time deem necessary and the right to remove any pipe line or any part thereof, all within the Easement;

(c) Together with the right of ingress, egress, and access to and from the Easement and upon the Property as may be necessary or convenient for purposes connected with the Easement;

(d) Together with (i) the right from time to time to remove or clear and keep clear such trees, underbrush, structures and other obstructions, upon the Easement and such trees beyond the same ("Danger Trees") as in the judgment of Condemnor may interfere with or endanger said lines or appurtenances when erected, provided that Condemnor will pay to Landowner the fair market value of such Danger Trees at the time of cutting as determined by a registered professional forester, and (ii) the right of entry upon the Property for all of the purposes aforesaid;

(e) Provided, however, that (i) all pipe shall be buried to such depth so that it will not interfere with the ordinary cultivation of said land, (ii) any damage to the Property (other than to property cleared or removed as provided herein) caused by Condemnor in the course of constructing, rebuilding or repairing said pipe line shall be borne by Condemnor, and (iii) Landowner shall reserve the right to cultivate and use the ground within the limits of the Easement, provided that such use shall not interfere with or obstruct the Condemnor's rights, and provided further than no building or other structure shall be erected by Landowner within the Easement.

6. Condemnor is vested with the power of eminent domain pursuant to Section 28-2-60 and Section 58-7-10, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, as amended.

7. The property sought herein is to be acquired for public purposes.

8. This action is brought pursuant to Section 28-2-240, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, as amended.

9. Condemnor has complied with the requirements set forth in Section 28-2-70(A), Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, as amended, by having the subject property appraised and making the appraisal available to the Landowner where required by law, and certifies to the Court that a negotiated resolution has been attempted prior to the commencement of this action.

10. Project plans may be inspected at the office of Condemnor at SCE&G, 920 Shine Avenue, Myrtle Beach, SC 29577-1523.

11. THE CONDEMNOR HAS DETERMINED JUST COMPENSATION FOR THE PROPERTY AND RIGHTS TO BE ACQUIRED HEREUNDER TO BE THE SUM OF SIX THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($6,900.00), AND HEREBY TENDERS PAYMENT TO THE LANDOWNER FOR ACCEPTANCE. Should any liens and/or encumbrances exist against the property which is the subject of this action, Condemnor reserves the right, at its discretion, to pay all or any portion of the just compensation to the holders of any liens or encumbrances – and any such payment(s) shall be part of the just compensation to the same effect as if made directly to the Landowner.

12. Payment of this amount will be made to the Landowner if, within thirty (30) days of service of this Condemnation Notice, the Landowner in writing requests payment and agrees to execute any instruments necessary to convey to the Condemnor the property interests and rights described hereinabove. A "Request for Payment and Agreement" form is attached. The "Request for Payment and Agreement" must be sent by first class certified mail with return receipt requested to the Condemnor at Alford Law Firm, LLC, P.O. Drawer 8008, Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, 29938, or hand delivered in person to Alford Law Firm, LLC, 18

Executive Park Road, Building 1, Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, 29928, within thirty (30) days of the service hereof. If no "Request for Payment and Agreement" is received by the Condemnor within the thirty (30) day period, the tender is considered rejected.

13. If the tender is rejected, the Condemnor has the right to file this Condemnation Notice with the Clerk of Court of the county where the property is situated and deposit the tender amount with the Clerk. The Condemnor shall give the Landowners notice that it has done so and may then proceed to take possession of the property interests and exercise the rights described in this Condemnation Notice. Should the Condemnor elect to exercise its right to take possession, it shall notify the Landowner by separate Notice prior to taking possession.

14. ANY ACTION CHALLENGING THE CONDEMNOR'S RIGHT TO ACQUIRE THE PROPERTY AND RIGHTS DESCRIBED HEREIN MUST BE COMMENCED IN A SEPARATE PROCEEDING IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS WITHIN THIRTY (30) DAYS OF THE SERVICE OF THIS CONDEMNATION NOTICE, OR THE LANDOWNER WILL BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE WAIVED THE CHALLENGE.

15. THE CONDEMNOR HAS ELECTED NOT TO UTILIZE THE APPRAISAL PANEL PROCEDURE. Therefore, if the tender herein is rejected, the Condemnor shall notify the Clerk of the Court and shall demand a trial to determine the amount of just compensation to be paid. A copy of that Notice must be served on the Landowner. That Notice shall state whether the Condemnor demands a trial by jury or by the court without a jury. The Landowner has the right to demand a trial by jury. The case may not be called for trial before sixty (60) days after the service of that Notice, but it may thereafter be given priority for trial over other civil cases. The Clerk of Court shall give the Landowners written notice by mail of the call of the case for trial.

16. THEREFORE, IF THE TENDER HEREIN IS REJECTED, THE LANDOWNER IS ADVISED TO OBTAIN LEGAL COUNSEL AT ONCE, IF NOT ALREADY OBTAINED.

17. In the event that the Landowner accepts the amount tendered in this Notice, the attached "Request for Payment and Agreement" form should be signed and returned to the Condemnor within thirty (30) days of your receipt of this Notice.

Accordingly, Pitch Landing, LLC would show as follows:

ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

1. That each and every allegation of the Plaintiff's Complaint which is not hereinafter specifically admitted is denied, and the Defendant demands strict proof thereof.
2. Paragraph 1 is a pleading paragraph requiring no response from this answering Defendant.

3. The allegations of Paragraphs 2 and 3 are admitted.

4. The Defendant lacks sufficient information to admit or deny the allegations set forth in Paragraph 4 and the subparts therein and therefore are denied.

6. Paragraph 8 is admitted upon information and belief.

7. Paragraph 9 is a pleading paragraph setting forth the property interest sought by the Plaintiff and does not require a response. The Defendant denies Plaintiff offered just compensation for the property interest it seeks.

8. As to the allegations of Paragraph 10, the answering Defendant admits it rejects the offer for tender of payment in the amount of $6,900.00 because it does not constitute just compensation. The remaining allegations are denied.

9. The Defendant lacks sufficient information to admit or deny the allegations set forth in Paragraph 11 and therefore are denied.

10. The allegations of Paragraph and 12 are denied and strict proof demanded thereof.

Second Defense

11. Each and every allegation alleged above is repeated verbatim herein.

12. Defendant denies it was properly offered just compensation.

Third Defense

13. Each and every allegation alleged above is repeated verbatim herein.

14. The Answering Defendant demands and is entitled to a jury trial.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the Complaint of the Plaintiff, the Defendant prays that:

- a. For a judgment for just compensation to be determined by a jury of peers;
- b. For a judgment against the Plaintiff in the amount of all reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in the defense of this action;
- c. For a trial by jury; and
- d. For such other and further relief in as this Court deems just and proper.

TO: Gregory Milam Alford, Counsel for the Condemnor

You will please take notice, Pitch Landing, LLC., by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby moves for an Order of this Court restoring the above captioned case to the docket. Pitch Landing, LLC will show:

1. It was served with Condemnor's Complaint in the above captioned matter and that it filed an Answer thereto on December 24, 2018.
2. Unbeknownst to Pitch Landing, LLC, Condemnor and Barbara A. Todd entered into a settlement agreement on February 14, 2019. Thereafter, a Consent Order of Dismissal as to Barbara A. Todd was filed on July 25, 2019. A second Stipulation of Dismissal, apparently as to the entire case, was also filed that day.
3. Pitch Landing, LLC was not a party to the settlement agreement or dismissal and did not have notice of such.

4. Thereafter, Pitch Landing, LLC and Condemnor continued on with the litigation. Pitch Landing, LLC and Condemnor discussed dates for a scheduling order for the above captioned matter. Condemnor never informed Pitch Landing, LLC that the case had been dismissed.
5. As set forth in the email attached as Exhibit "A", counselor for Condemnor revised dates for the proposed scheduling order in the above captioned case and informed the undersigned counselor that he consented to its filing. This shows Pitch Landing, LLC was not aware the case was dismissed.

Pursuant to SCRCP Rule 41 (a)(1)(B), a stipulation of dismissal must be signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. As set forth above, Pitch Landing, LLC was made a party to the action and it filed its Answer on December 24, 2018. Accordingly, the stipulation of dismissal filed in this matter was not proper and the case must be restored.

The undersigned, pursuant to Rule 11, SCRCP, hereby certifies that he has attempted in good faith to resolve the matter contained in the Motion but to no avail.

The Condemnor, South Carolina Electric & Gas Company n/k/a Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. objects to the restoration of the case for Pitch Landing's purposes because in accordance with S.C Dep't of Commerce v. Charleston County School District, S.C. App. (2020), this case is concluded. This action was filed on October 29, 2018. Defendant, "other condemnee" Pitch Landing, LLC answered and demanded a jury trial. Pitch Landing did not file a counterclaim nor a cross claim.

Pitch Landing moves to restore the case pursuant to Rule 41 (a)(1)(B) of the SCRCP. Pitch Landings reliance on 41(a)(1) is misplaced as that portion of the Rule governs a "dismissal by the Plaintiff without order of the court.. ."

The case was dismissed by a Consent Order signed and entered by the Court. Thus it is governed by Rule 41(b) of the SCRCP. The only caveat to the effect of a Rule 41(b) dismissal applies in the circumstance when a defendant has filed a counterclaim. Therefore, since the case was dismissed by consent order (of which Pitch Landing had notice prior to its entry), Rule 41 is of no assistance to Pitch Landings motion.

Condemnor and Condemnee reached a settlement and this case as to the just compensation and filed a proposed Consent Order on May 16, 2019. Thereafter, on May 29, 2020, the Court entered the Order. Although Pitch Landing answered the Complaint and demanded a jury trial, Pitch Landing never objected to the proposed Consent Order, and never indicated that there was any dispute as to the disposition of the condemnation proceeds nor did they request a hearing in accordance with S.C. Code 28-2-460.

In S.C Dep't of Commerce v. Charleston County School District, S.C. App. (2020), the Court held:

The statutory scheme of the Act contemplates that the landowner, and not other condemnees, is the interested party in most phases of the action. Thus, the landowner alone is served with the condemnation notice and accepts or rejects the tender or challenges the right to condemn, is served with the condemnor's election to proceed with trial, and consents to abandonment of the action. The other condemnees receive notice only of filing the action and of any proceedings to disburse the proceeds.

In the present case, Pitch Landing received notice of the proposed Consent Order on March 16, 2019. The Order was entered on March 29, 2019. The case was dismissed July 25, 2019. Pitch Landing did not move to restore until September 23, 2020. Therefore, the case is incapable of being restored.

Pursuant to Rules 52, 58, 59, and 60, SCRCPP, and all other legal authority, Landowner respectfully requests the Court reconsider its Form 4 Orders: granting Landowner's Motion to Restore dated March 2, 2021 and filed on March 3, 2021 in C/A No.:2018-CP-26-06064; and, denying Landowner's Motion to Consolidate dated March 2, 2021 and filed on March 3, 2021 in C/A No.:2018-CP-26-06424. The grounds for this Motion are:

1. The ruling erroneously relies on the S.C. DOC v. Clemson Univ. (2020 S.C. App. Lexis 123; 2020 WL 6751311) case, which is not a final ruling as there is currently a Petition for Certiorari pending before the South Carolina Supreme Court.
2. The S.C. DOC v. Clemson Univ. case is readily distinguishable from the case at hand.
 - a. The School District in the Clemson matter was provided a full evidentiary hearing before a Special Referee consented to by all parties on the issue of whether the School District held an interest in the portion of the parcel its buildings occupied, specifically, whether the Leasehold interest remained intact following the expiration of the lease it once held. The Referee held the School District had no written leasehold or other documented property interest in the tract, but that it enjoyed an equitable interest as a result of improvements it had constructed thereupon.

- b. By contrast, the larger Pitch Landing tract includes an easement appurtenant providing permanent, location-specific access through the property sold to Barbara Todd (see Deed Book 2878 Page 247) (See attached Exhibits A and B). This easement, referenced in Paragraph 3 of Civil Action 2018-CP-26-06424 (See attached Exhibit C) and Paragraph 4(b) of Civil Action 2018-CP-26-06064 (See attached Exhibit D) is a dominant, appurtenant easement, separate and distinct from Todd's fee simple estate. The Pitch Landing real interest in the Todd tract is that "which belongs to something else; an adjunct; an appendage. Something annexed to another thing more worthy as principal..." Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Ed., definition, in part, of "appurtenance." Here, the easement is annexed to the Pitch Landing tract "more worthy as principal." As such, Pitch Landing as the property owner of this easement interest should have been fully included in the matter against Todd, in order to properly compensate Pitch Landing for all impacts of the taking of its affected real property interest.

3. Alternatively, Condemnor could have named Pitch Landing in a separate condemnation proceeding, as a landowner, in order to take its interest in the easement.
4. As a third alternative, Condemnor could have included the taking of the appurtenant easement across the servient tract in the taking of property from Pitch Landing as the owner of the dominant tract. However, dispensing with Pitch Landing's easement interest in the Todd action is improper and can be cured only by including the acquisition of the Pitch Landing easement appurtenant to the just compensation calculation in the matter against Pitch Landing as the Landowner.
5. On the date of the taking, Barbara Todd held fee simple of the servient tract subject to the appurtenant easement withheld in its grant by the owner of the dominant tract, Pitch Landing.
6. In the present matter, the only property taken from Barbara Todd was the precise real property amounting to the 50' easement appurtenant to the Pitch Landing adjacent parcel.
7. No opportunity was given to provide evidence or testimony as to the question of equitable interest and therefore the ruling was premature.

The court's decision contradicts established treatise and caselaw. Where the easement supporting the dominant estate has been taken, the just compensation is the difference between the value of the dominant estate with the easement and its value without the easement. Nichols on Eminent Domain, § 12(D).02(1). In cases like the present, "the amount of compensation for the fee simple interest of the servient estate will not adequately compensate the dominant estate which has lost its access since ordinarily an access road...will not diminish the value of the servient estate by the amount it benefits the dominant estate.” Condemnation of Easements, James L. Thompspon, Eminent Domain and Land Valuation Litigation, January 2003.

In United States v. Gossler, 60 F.Supp.971 (1945), the Court determined that the owner of a dominant tenement was entitled to compensation for his interests separate from the fee held by the owner of the servient estate. The condemnor unsuccessfully argued the owner of the easement was only entitled to share in the single award paid to the owner of the servient estate. The Court disagreed, reasoning:

The fallacy of the reasoning which lies at the basis of these motions arises from the concept of the title of real property as a thing with physical attributes, whereas title is a conglomerate of jurisdiction and substantive legal rights fused with the residuals of equitable remedies all developed historically out of feudal notions and medieval conditions. By this proceeding the United States does not acquire a physical thing by taking the fee simple title of the Gosslers, but sets up another title by extinguishment of all interests inconsistent with use by the Government. Since the United States is investing itself with an utterly new title and extinguishing the whole aggregate of rights connected with this piece of ground by condemnation, the Fifth Amendment requires compensation for all property rights so erased.

The United States cannot abrogate all, but pay for the particular right known as the fee simple title alone. The owner of another recognized property interest attached to the soil would then receive no compensation just or otherwise. Indeed in practice, the value of the fee simple title might well be materially reduced by the existence of this right of way. If payment were made for a specific interest such as the fee title, out of the aggregate, the Government would abrogate the other interests without paying monetary consideration therefor. Such a result does not satisfy the demands of the amendment. The United States is liable to the owner of an easement appurtenant in a suit condemning the fee of the servient estate. Id. at 973-974.

Accordingly, Pitch Landing hereby respectfully moves this Honorable Court reconsider its Orders and permit Pitch Landing, as Landowner, to proceed to jury trial on the matter of determining just compensation for the property taken from its dominant parcel, including the easement appurtenant across the servient Todd tract, by placing the servient tract taking (2018-

CP-26-06064) on the jury trial roster and consolidating it with the dominant tract taking (2018-CP-26-6424).

- b. By contrast, the larger Pitch Landing tract includes an easement appurtenant providing permanent, location-specific access through the property sold to Barbara Todd (see Deed Book 2878 Page 247) (See attached Exhibits A and B). This easement, referenced in Paragraph 3 of Civil Action 2018-CP-26-06424 (See attached Exhibit C) and Paragraph 4(b) of Civil Action 2018-CP-26-06064 (See attached Exhibit D) is a dominant, appurtenant easement, separate and distinct from Todd's fee simple estate. The Pitch Landing real interest in the Todd tract is that "which belongs to something else; an adjunct; an appendage. Something annexed to another thing more worthy as principal..." Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Ed., definition, in part, of "appurtenance." Here, the easement is annexed to the Pitch Landing tract "more worthy as principal." As such, Pitch Landing as the property owner of this easement interest should have been fully included in the matter against Todd, in order to properly compensate Pitch Landing for all impacts of the taking of its affected real property interest.

3. Alternatively, Condemnor could have named Pitch Landing in a separate condemnation proceeding, as a landowner, in order to take its interest in the easement.
4. As a third alternative, Condemnor could have included the taking of the appurtenant easement across the servient tract in the taking of property from Pitch Landing as the owner of the dominant tract. However, dispensing with Pitch Landing's easement interest in the Todd action is improper and can be cured only by including the acquisition of the Pitch Landing easement appurtenant to the just compensation calculation in the matter against Pitch Landing as the Landowner.
5. On the date of the taking, Barbara Todd held fee simple of the servient tract subject to the appurtenant easement withheld in its grant by the owner of the dominant tract, Pitch Landing.
6. In the present matter, the only property taken from Barbara Todd was the precise real property amounting to the 50' easement appurtenant to the Pitch Landing adjacent parcel.
7. No opportunity was given to provide evidence or testimony as to the question of equitable interest and therefore the ruling was premature.

The court's decision contradicts established treatise and caselaw. Where the easement supporting the dominant estate has been taken, the just compensation is the difference between the value of the dominant estate with the easement and its value without the easement. Nichols on Eminent Domain, § 12(D).02(1). In cases like the present, "the amount of compensation for the fee simple interest of the servient estate will not adequately compensate the dominant estate which has lost its access since ordinarily an access road...will not diminish the value of the servient estate by the amount it benefits the dominant estate.” Condemnation of Easements, James L. Thomspson, Eminent Domain and Land Valuation Litigation, January 2003.

In United States v. Gossler, 60 F.Supp.971 (1945), the Court determined that the owner of a dominant tenement was entitled to compensation for his interests separate from the fee held by the owner of the servient estate. The condemnor unsuccessfully argued the owner of the easement was only entitled to share in the single award paid to the owner of the servient estate. The Court disagreed, reasoning:

The fallacy of the reasoning which lies at the basis of these motions arises from the concept of the title of real property as a thing with physical attributes, whereas title is a conglomerate of jurisdiction and substantive legal rights fused with the residuals of equitable remedies all developed historically out of feudal notions and medieval conditions. By this proceeding the United States does not acquire a physical thing by taking the fee simple title of the Gosslers, but sets up another title by extinguishment of all interests inconsistent with use by the Government. Since the United States is investing itself with an utterly new title and extinguishing the whole aggregate of rights connected with this piece of ground by condemnation, the Fifth Amendment requires compensation for all property rights so erased.

The United States cannot abrogate all, but pay for the particular right known as the fee simple title alone. The owner of another recognized property interest attached to the soil would then receive no compensation just or otherwise. Indeed in practice, the value of the fee simple title might well be materially reduced by the existence of this right of way. If payment were made for a specific interest such as the fee title, out of the aggregate, the Government would abrogate the other interests without paying monetary consideration therefor. Such a result does not satisfy the demands of the amendment. The United States is liable to the owner of an easement appurtenant in a suit condemning the fee of the servient estate. Id. at 973-974.

Accordingly, Pitch Landing hereby respectfully moves this Honorable Court reconsider its Orders and permit Pitch Landing, as Landowner, to proceed to jury trial on the matter of determining just compensation for the property taken from its dominant parcel, including the easement appurtenant across the servient Todd tract, by placing the servient tract taking (2018-

CP-26-06064) on the jury trial roster and consolidating it with the dominant tract taking (2018-CP-26-6424).

1 MR. NEILL: Good morning, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Good morning. Is anybody else involved in 3 this one?

4 MR. NEILL: Greg Alford should be involved in this one,
5 Judge.

6 THE COURT: All right. I don't see -- oh, I see his 7 name, but he didn't raise his hand. Let me make him -- all
8 right.

9 Mr. Alford, can you see and hear us?

10 MR. ALFORD: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: I can hear you, but I can't see you.

12 MR. ALFORD: Good morning. Sorry.

13 THE COURT: There we go.

14 MR. ALFORD: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: All right. Is this everybody we need?

16 MR. NEILL: Yes, sir. I believe it is.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. ALFORD: Your Honor, if I may? There is another
19 motion by Mr. Neill which is in the case Barbara Todd, 26-
20 06064.

21 THE COURT: Yeah. I see -- okay, that's 6064. Can we 22 argue these at the same time?

23 MR. ALFORD: Your Honor, that would be the best way to do
24 it, because depending on how the motion to restore pans out
25 that may determine what the next motion is.

1 THE COURT: I got you. All right. So this is 2018-CP-
2 26-06424, South Carolina Electric and Gas Company versus Pitch
3 Landing, LLC and others; also 2018-CP-26-06064 South Carolina
4 Electric and Gas versus Barbara A. Todd and others.

5 The first 2018-6424 is a motion to consolidate, next
6 2018-6064 is a motion to restore. Please give the court
7 reporter your names and who you represent.

8 MR. NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. I'm Mark Neill and I
9 represent Pitch Landing, LLC.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. ALFORD: Good morning. I'm Gregory Alford and I
12 represent Dominion Energy South Carolina formerly South
13 Carolina Electric and Gas.

14 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Neill, these are your 15 motions?

16 MR. NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. And you said we need to do the 18 motion to restore first, that's dispositive?

19 MR. NEILL: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Let me hear from you on that.
21 This is on 2018-CP-26-06064. All right.

22 MR. NEILL: Yes, Your Honor. So just as a way of a brief
23 background so you have a better understanding of what's going
24 on with this one, Judge. These two cases are basically kind 25 of companion cases. South Carolina Energy and Gas was

1 condemning property for the construction of a gas line. So on 2 the Barbara Todd property basically what they were doing was 3 they were condemning a private road that she was the owner of,
4 but my clients had an access and utility easement over that 5 private road. So when they filed the action against Ms. Todd,
6 obviously they named her as a defendant and as us additional 7 condemnees because we have this access easement and utility
8 easement which basically covered this road that they were 9 condemning, okay. And then the second action, and that's 10 SCE&G versus Pitch Landing, is where they were condemning
11 additional property that was actually owned by Pitch Landing
12 that the gas line was going to run on. They are very much
13 related in that way.

14 So these actions were filed. We actually filed answers
15 in both of them because there's actually a complaint involved
16 with this condemnation action which is a little bit different.
17 We filed answers in both of them. We went through the process
18 of doing discovery, in fact back in February of 2020 we 19 actually started discussing a scheduling order in this case.
20 A scheduling order for both of these case were sent around to 21 everybody. Mr. Alford actually offered input and dates on 22 these scheduling orders. Eventually the scheduling order, I
23 believe, was filed with the court in March of last year 2020.

24 So as we're progressing through the process of doing
25 discovery, we're talking about setting up depositions, at some

1 point in July of 2020 we discover that SCE&G has settled out
2 with the landowner. There was a consent order done with the 3 Court to settle out with her. Pitch Landing was not a party
4 to this consent order, okay. And also subsequently after that 5 -- the initial consent order which, Judge, I know you've got 6 this in your filing system, that was filed in May of 2019.
7 They filed this proposed consent order to settle out with the 8 landowner. They did not include us in any of that. We had no
9 knowledge whatsoever that there was even a settlement that 10 occurred with Ms. Todd. And although if you look at the 11 consent order it speaks that there was a hearing involved with 12 that. I've actually spoken with Henrietta Golding who 13 represented Ms. Todd in this and there was never a hearing on 14 that. It was basically just a proposed consent order that was 15 sent to the Court, signed by the other parties but not Pitch
16 Landing, okay. And then subsequently to that consent order
17 which says dismissal as to Barbara A. Todd, a stipulation of 18 dismissal was filed by counsel that dismissed the action in 19 its entirety. Once again, Pitch Landing was never a party to 20 the stipulation. They did not sign it and the case got 21 dismissed.

22 THE COURT: Now they had made -- Pitch Landing had made
23 an appearance in the action?

24 MR. NEILL: Pitch Landing? Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Go ahead.

1 MR. NEILL: We had not only just made an appearance, but
2 we had also filed an answer since there was also a complaint
3 in the action. So there was no question we were a party.

4 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

5 MR. NEILL: But we weren't part of any of these 6 settlement discussions and we certainly weren't part of this 7 stipulation of dismissal that managed to dismiss the entire 8 action, even the action that proposed against us.

9 Now, what's happened in the interim is of course SCE&G,
10 now Dominion Energy, has come in and installed a gas line right
11 down the middle of this private road, okay. So this is 12 essentially destroys our ability to use this as an access 13 piece. And there's been engineers involved in all of this and 14 it's clear that there is no way in this world you can build a
15 road over top of this gas line that they've installed. So
16 essentially what has happened is SCE&G filed a condemnation
17 action. They named us as a party in interest and have 18 dismissed the action without actually paying us any money for 19 the destruction of our easement.

20 Now, this easement is a really big deal because this 21 easement allows -- my clients have a development there. It's 22 on the river down there. This easement is a very big deal 23 because if this easement is destroyed, we are now limited to 24 only developing about half of the amount of lots that we would 25 be allowed to develop if we had two points of entry. So, you

1 know, the damages that our engineers and appraisers have come
2 up with is a little over $900,000 as a result of them taking 3 this road from us. And of course the case has now been 4 dismissed. We were never a party to any of it, and nobody has 5 paid us one penny at this point. You know, so when we became 6 aware -- and like I said, this all took place before we were 7 ever going through the process of discovery, a scheduling
8 order with Mr. Alford, all of this took place after they had 9 already dismissed it. So you know, that just kind shows that 10 we had no idea what they had done here. We were given no
11 notice of it. We were certainly not a party to the consent
12 order that was filed with the Court, and we certainly weren't 13 privy to the stipulation of dismissal that was later filed.

14 So you know we've been going back and forth with this for 15 a while now. We have a consent order that we circulated back 16 in October to try and resolve this, but we just haven't been 17 able to get anywhere with that.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 MR. NEILL: So that was the purpose of our filing this 20 motion today.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Alford, let me hear from you.

22 MR. ALFORD: Yes, sir. Good morning, Your Honor. Thank 23 you. Your Honor, first of all I'd like to start out and say
24 that you know with respect of course, they were served with 25 notice. We filed -- we uploaded the proposed order in

1 accordance with the rules. You know if you've made an
2 appearance you get served, that's how it works. You get the 3 e-filing notice and you go find it. So that was done. We 4 then did settle. I would like to point out, because I got 5 concerned that the order -- the consent order does not
6 reference a hearing, Your Honor. I just wanted to be clear
7 about that. We wouldn't do that, I mean it was just a consent
8 order that was sent to the Court proposed. Mr. Neill had to 9 have gotten a copy or had access to one under e-filing. But I
10 -- leaving that aside, I just wanted to clear that up for the 11 Court. That's not something we engage in.

12 Secondly, Your Honor, while they did file an answer -- I
13 think there's a lot -- we uploaded a memorandum. I'm afraid
14 it might not of -- I didn't get the acceptance notice until 15 this morning, but we uploaded it Friday. Essentially the way
16 we understand condemnation actions to work, and I think that 17 was affirmed, basically our understanding by a recent Court of 18 Appeals case Department of Commerce, Division of Public
19 Railways versus Clemson University and Charleston County
20 School District. I don't know if the Court is familiar with 21 that decision, but they offer a lot of guidance about the 22 structure of the relationship with the landowner being the 23 primary guardian being able to decide -- they get to decide
24 the value of the easement. Any dispute as to the monies that 25 would have been due to Pitch Landing would take place in an

1 equitable proceeding that would take place after the 2 condemnation, after the landowner and the condemnee had 3 agreed. The point of uploading the consent order was to give 4 them that notice and to give them an opportunity to ask for 5 their portion of the proceeds if they wanted to claim monies
6 were owed to them for their equitable interests. I think if 7 you read the case that's kind of how it plays out.

8 Now, Your Honor, I have a bunch of these files and I
9 don't disagree that when he sent me the Pitch Landing consent
10 order -- scheduling order I said let's move them out and we'll 11 keep going because we're all in the middle of the -- we don't 12 know when we're going to court, we don't know what's happening
13 with the cases at that point because of the Covid stuff. So I
14 don't -- I can understand I guess -- I don't know if they 15 understood the import of what was going on I guess is the 16 difference. I don't think there was any intent to deceive or 17 anything. I'm not sure if they understood the import of our 18 resolving it with the landowner, which we have every right to 19 do, and the landowner has every right to do. It's then a 20 question of -- because let's face it, the easement can't be 21 worth more than the fee and we took the fee. Their 22 compensation should come at what you call the division of the 23 proceeds among the condemnees. I think the Clemson case, I
24 don't know whether you call I the railroad case, the Clemson 25 case, or the school district case, but the recent case out of

1 the Court of Appeals I think lays out very, almost in a linear
2 fashion how that's supposed to work. In this case, while they 3 did file an answer, they never requested the equitable
4 proceeding, which I don't know why but they didn't, to find 5 out what their share of those monies were.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MR. ALFORD: Our position is -- our position is this case
8 is over and if they were to reopen it, I think the only thing
9 under this case and the way the mandates that are laid out in 10 the statute, I think the only remedy would be to go back to 11 Barbara Todd and say okay give us some percentage of those 12 monies because you've compromised our easement by selling the 13 land to them.

14 THE COURT: Well what is the fact situation in the 15 Clemson case?

16 MR. ALFORD: Oh, in the Clemson case the school district,
17 it's kind of confusing but the school district -- let's see,
18 the railroad came along and wanted to condemn some land,
19 Clemson owned the land, the school district had a lease.
20 Clemson and the school district, I'm sorry, Clemson and the 21 railroad company had done a swap of land so no monetary
22 consideration. The school district then said wait a minute, 23 we should get a percent -- the Court said you go to an 24 equitable proceeding and decide what percentage of those 25 condemnation proceeds you get, school district. But since

1 there was no monetary relief given, we're not going to have 2 that proceeding because they said that the trial judge -- and
3 if the Court -- I don't want to do this to the court reporter,
4 but if the Court doesn't mind, I'll read some of that.

5 THE COURT: Well I guess my question is did they just say
6 the school district was out and they didn't get anything since 7 it was a land swap and their lease was just worthless and 8 nothing came out of it?

9 MR. ALFORD: I do believe that's what they did, Your 10 Honor, as unfair as that might sound. I think that is what 11 happened.

12 Next, concluding the school district had no statutory 13 right to a jury trial. We find the department's initial 14 demand for a jury trial in the condemnation action was not 15 dispositive. Then they come down and they talk about that 16 other condemnee -- the main take away from the case is that 17 other condemnees don't have a right to a jury trial, a
18 landowner does. After the compensation has been decided other 19 condemnees can then apply for a percentage or some equitable - 20 - their fair share of whatever the value to the ownership of 21 the easement was.

22 THE COURT: I mean I guess my question is, is what is the 23 purpose of giving notice to Mr. Neill's client in the 24 condemnation action if you don't need his consent or anything?

25 MR. ALFORD: Yes, sir. I think that's a good question.

1 The purpose of that is so that he can ask for that equitable
2 proceeding. But under the code section I think it speaks to 3 it. It says "finally the school district asserts the 4 equitable nature of its interest is not precluded from having 5 a jury trial. We disagree. As we stated, the parties
6 entitled to a jury trial in a condemnation are the landowner
7 and the condemnor. When, as here, the landowner and the 8 condemnor have settled their dispute, the act does not require
9 a jury trial on the issue of just compensation for any parties 10 that do not fall into one of these categories. Therefore, we 11 find that the circuit court did not err by finding the school
12 district was not entitled to a jury trial to determine the 13 value, if any, of its equitable interest in the 3.74-acre
14 portion of property. And then they transferred -- for the 15 foregoing reasons, the circuit court's order transferring the 16 action to the non-jury roster is affirmed." Because now what 17 they are there for is the equitable proceeding.

18 THE COURT: Well I think that's what Mr. Neill's argument
19 is, is he can't even proceed with the equitable proceeding now
20 because the case has been dismissed.

21 MR. NEILL: Well there's more to it than that, Judge. I 22 mean remember there's a big difference between the person who 23 actually owns a road, which is -- has very little use to that 24 person that's subject to, but that's all they took was the 25 road. That's it, just the road, and the person who legally

1 has the right to use that road to access their property. You
2 know it's a very different situation than when we have a
3 mortgagor or a lessee who's directly tied to that ownership of 4 property. The ownership interest of my client is very
5 different than that of Ms. Todd. She owns a piece of property
6 that's subject to a road easement. You know we own an access
7 easement that allows us to access our property. You know
8 that's an entirely different scenario than what we're talking
9 about between owner and lessee.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. NEILL: Judge, you know we made a demand for ---

12 THE COURT: Well wait a minute. I understand that and 13 I'll give you an opportunity to reply.

14 Go ahead, Mr. Alford, let me hear from you.

15 MR. ALFORD: I just -- I just wanted to go to the case
16 here, Your Honor, it says section 28-2-460 of the act provides 17 and it quotes the section and it says "Unless the person
18 served with the Condemnation Notice agree in writing as to 19 whom just compensation must be made and paid, the appraisal
20 panel determination, verdict, or judgment must be made jointly 21 to all the parties and may be paid to the clerk of court. Upon
22 making the payment, the condemnor's obligation to pay interest
23 upon the funds shall terminate. The payment of the funds so
24 awarded must be held by the clerk of court pending the final 25 order of the court of common pleas in an equity proceeding to

1 which all persons served with the Condemnation Notice must be
2 necessary parties." So what the case says is only the 3 landowners get notice.

4 THE COURT: Yeah, but was that money paid into the clerk
5 of court?

6 MR. ALFORD: It was, Your Honor, and then the consent
7 order released it. I think what, if something was going to 8 happen, Mr. Neill would be entitled to have a proceeding with 9 Ms. Todd.

10 THE COURT: No. As I understand what you're saying, the 11 money's paid into the clerk of court and then the Court
12 determines how it is to be divided. The problem is is that 13 your client and Ms. Todd decided that it was all going to Ms.
14 Todd and cut Mr. Neill's client out.

15 MR. NEILL: And the amount of that check as well, Your 16 Honor.

17 MR. ALFORD: I'm not trying to play games here. I
18 wouldn't do that. What I'm trying to say to you is that was 19 the point of giving him the notice of what we'd valued the 20 deal at, $19,000, and that he had the opportunity then to 21 request his equitable proceeding to say some of that's mine,
22 all of that's mine. At that point -- and they didn't do it,
23 that was the point of sending them the proposed -- that's the 24 point of filing that document and letting it cure. It is -- I
25 can understand I guess the perceived unfairness, but he's got

1 to protect -- if his client doesn't like the value of it he's 2 got to step up and under the code ---

3 THE COURT: So what was he supposed to do that he didn't 4 do?

5 MR. ALFORD: Demand the equitable proceeding for his 6 percentage of the proceeds.

7 THE COURT: I'm assuming his answer did that.

8 MR. ALFORD: They asked for a jury trial, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Well that's saying I'm participating.

10 MR. ALFORD: I understand and that's why he was served 11 with everything. You Honor, I'm not -- I can understand the 12 Court's perceiving -- I understand what's bothering you.

13 THE COURT: Yeah.

14 MR. ALFORD: Unfortunately this is how it lays out, and 15 then that's how we thought it worked and then the Court comes
16 out subsequently with this case in November 18, 2020 -- oh
17 man, it was Markly Dennis, affirmed. It tells us that we 18 actually understood it correctly that the other condemnees --
19 the point of contention between us and the other condemnees is 20 that over time is that ---

21 THE COURT: Well I'm going to have to take it under 22 advisement and read that case because the problem -- I kind of 23 agree with everything you're saying, Mr. Alford, but for the 24 fact that you and Ms. -- your client and Ms. Todd entered into 25 a consent order when there is another party who had made an

1 appearance and is not part of that consent.

2 MR. ALFORD: And I do understand that, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Yeah.

4 MR. ALFORD: And I would say to you that -- with respect,
5 I'm sorry, I didn't mean to ---

6 THE COURT: No, no. I'm just saying that I think -- I
7 don't understand how you can pick and choose who you -- I mean
8 could you have just contacted any of the parties and gotten 9 their consent and excluded the others? What ---

10 MR. ALFORD: No, sir. It's actually -- that's what this 11 case really talks about is who is the primary party in 12 interest, in a condemnation it's the landowner.

13 THE COURT: And I think that's correct. By the same
14 token, I don't think that relieves the consent of any of the 15 other parties and I've got to read the case and see.

16 MR. ALFORD: Yes, sir, and that's fair. I guess my 17 response to that would be that that was why this case
18 happened.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. ALFORD: --- the other folks didn't consent, they 21 wanted some money ---

22 THE COURT: And you might be right. You may be right on 23 that. I don't know. But I mean I don't know if that was the 24 case or not because it sounds like to me, correct me if I'm 25 wrong, it sounds like to me that that case simply said school

1 district you don't get a jury trial. This is an equitable
2 action that is going to be decided non-jury and that's going
3 to determine how much you're entitled to, whereas Mr. Neill's
4 client is even cut out of that process.

5 MR. ALFORD: And I understand maybe he shouldn't be cut
6 out of that process. Maybe he should be able to go back and 7 argue for his percentage of the value that's decided between 8 us and the landowner and the condemnor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well I'll take that under 10 advisement and I'll make a decision on that.

11 MR. ALFORD: Yes, sir. If you require anything further 12 from myself and I'm sure from Mr. Neill, we'll be happy to 13 provide that. Your Honor, the citation to that case is in our 14 memorandum.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. ALFORD: South Carolina Department of Commerce versus
17 Clemson, South Carolina Court of Appeals 2020. I don't know
18 if I put like a West Law type cite in there, but I'd be happy 19 to ---

20 THE COURT: I'm sure I can get it from just a key word
21 search.

22 MR. ALFORD: Yes, sir. I apologize for that.

23 THE COURT: All right. What are we doing on the motion
24 to consolidate?

25 MR. NEILL: Your Honor, just one more point that's

1 relevant with this.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

3 MR. NEILL: We've had a huge issue with this case with 4 the e-filing system and us not receiving e-filings.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. NEILL: They've dropped us continually from it over
7 the couple of years that we've been doing it. Just giving you
8 an example, the memorandum of opposition that Mr. Alford filed
9 on Friday that apparently was accepted this morning, I got 10 zero notice of that. So I've got to figure out what is going 11 on that that. Clearly if we had notice of this we would have 12 dealt with it, but we just continued on like everything was 13 fine for almost an entire year before it was discovered.

14 THE COURT: All right. Now the motion to consolidate.

15 MR. NEILL: So, Judge, basically since these cases are so
16 similar, obviously the landowner is out of the Barbara A. Todd
17 case so that basically just leaves South Carolina or Dominion
18 Energy with the taking of our property and then the value
19 associated with the taking of the easement of Ms. Todd's
20 property. It just makes judicial sense that we would handle
21 all of it at the same time rather than floating them as two 22 separate cases.

23 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Alford, any position on that?

24 MR. ALFORD: Again, Your Honor, my position would be on 25 that, that presuming that you were to review the Clemson case

1 ---

2 THE COURT: Yeah, let's go under -- I mean if I deny the 3 motion to restore then that makes consolidation moot.

4 MR. ALFORD: Correct. And that's what I was going to 5 say, assuming that happens and the Court says do we 6 consolidate or not, I would respectfully submit no. You've 7 got two -- the remedy, again, you'd be back into Barbara Todd
8 deciding the value of the fee, which I think if you read the 9 case you're going to -- deciding the value of just 10 compensation for the condemnation, I think you would be back
11 into us and Barbara Todd essentially if that makes any sense.
12 Otherwise, how are you going to get the money out of this 13 equitable proceeding that's got to take place with Barbara
14 Todd, us and Barbara Todd if you will up at the top making
15 this decision and then it has to flow down and those funds
16 would flow down. Does that make any sense, Your Honor?

17 THE COURT: Well I understand what you're saying. I
18 think it is kind of convoluted. And I think the problem that 19 you've got here is you've probably got -- it sounds like from 20 Mr. Neill that you have got an easement that is certainly 21 worth a lot more to the easement holder than the property
22 owner, because to the property owner it's a strip of land that 23 they could live without. You've got an easement owner that 24 can't get to their property without it.

25 MR. ALFORD: And let me say if they can get to it another

1 way, that's all ---

2 THE COURT: Yeah.

3 MR. ALFORD: But what I'm saying is, to me it's more of I
4 am unable -- the premise of condemnation existed before this
5 easement existed. And the premise that an easement is more
6 valuable than the land is an exceedingly dangerous premise
7 that is unsupported anywhere in law, in condemnation law.
8 Which is why I think for other interests, equitable and other
9 interests in property, which is why I think the Court took the 10 time to illuminate the scenario and who's who in the 11 prioritization. That's just my opinion, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Well and I'll read the case and I'll let you
13 know. I can tell you my initial inclination, not inclination,
14 but concern I guess. If I don't restore the Todd case, then 15 how does that affect the value of Pitch Landing's property in 16 the condemnation against them because now they've got property
17 that does not have an access easement that they did have an 18 access easement to that could make it a whole lot more
19 valuable than without the access easement.

20 MR. ALFORD: And, Your Honor, I do understand that. I
21 would say hypothetically of course, obviously you're going to 22 ---

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. ALFORD: I would say that that could be dealt with in 25 the Pitch Landing case. I mean that would be up to their

1 attorney as to how to plead that, how to sort that out. But I
2 think as to this piece of the fee, if you read the Clemson
3 case, and I've read it 25 times because I was so glad -- not 4 with respect to Mr. Neill and this case, more in the 5 conversation that we're having with many, many condemnees who 6 hold rights to properties. The thinking, I mean it's one of 7 these ivory tower scholarly thinking kind of things which I'm 8 not very good at, but the thinking that an easement is more
9 valuable than ownership of land I think is not -- I could 10 understand it involving an economic structure but I'll say 11 this, in the world of real property, and the world of 12 condemnation it preexists the easements.

13 THE COURT: Well I would rather own a piece of property
14 than to just have an easement. By the same token ---

15 MR. ALFORD: Because property can get condemned and you -
16 --

17 THE COURT: Yeah. All right. I think I've got a good
18 hold on it. I'll take it under advisement and I'll just issue
19 a Form 4 on my decision. Okay.

20 MR. ALFORD: Thank you very much. Mark, good to see you.

21 MR. NEILL: You too, Greg.
