RE: Terence L. Rush v. Michael B. Strible

Appellate Case No. 2021-000817

Dear Ms. Allen:

I received the material back you sent me when you returned the Record on Appeal along with an Exhibit A in your December 14, 2021 letter. The Exhibit -A contain the Plaintiff's Reply Brief to the Motion to Dismiss was attached to the Appellant's Initial Brief as the Initial Brief's exhibit and not part of the Record on Appeal. Would you please be kind and reattach it back with the Initial Brief?

I do appreciate your time and attention in this matter.

With warm regards, I am,

Terence L. Rush

RE: Terence L. Rush v. Michael B. Scribble

Appellate Case No. 2021-000817

Dear Ms. Allen:

I had the Designation of Matter prepared and ready to go out by the morning of December 23, 2021 after receiving your letter with the Record on Appeal back and the Initial Brief's Exhibit A on December 21, 2021.

Unbeknownst to me, the Governor of Florida, Ron Desantis, declared December 23rd a holiday administratively in the State of Florida.

There was no mail leaving this institution on the morning of December 23rd and it took me the whole night of December 21st and all day of December 22nd, 2021 to prepare a designation that I do not have any rule books or procedure books to explain quite exactly what and how to prepare one.

Please accept these documents as timely because I do not have control over when they give me my mail, when they will receive them to send them out, or when an elected official change things in its state administratively over something nationally.

I do appreciate your time and attention in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Terence L. Rush
