Re: Sonnys Grill v. Langston Black Real Estate
Appellate Case No. 2021-001545

Dear Mr. Carter:

Please be advised that your correspondence was received in our office on December 29, 2021. The information that you have provided in your letter is not sufficient to be considered a Notice of Appeal. At this time, the Court has received a copy of the lower court's order dated November 29, 2021 and a filing fee in the amount of $260.00.

According to Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, a Notice of Appeal must include the name of the court from which the appeal is taken; the judge's name; the lower court docket number; the date of the order being appealed; the name of the appealing party; the date of written notice of entry; and the names, mailing addresses, and telephone numbers of all the attorneys of record and the names of the party or parties represented by each. The Notice of Appeal must also be accompanied by a Proof of Service stating that a copy of the Notice of Appeal has been served on all parties or their counsel, as well as on the clerk of the lower court.

You are also advised that a non-lawyer individual cannot represent a corporation under Renaissance Enterprises, Inc. v. Summit Teleservices, 334 S.C. 649, 515

S.E.2d 257 (1999). Therefore, it will be necessary for you to retain an attorney to perfect the appeal on the behalf of Sonnys Grill. Please notify the Court in writing of the name and address of the attorney who will be representing this company within thirty (30) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed. Time limits for perfecting this appeal will be held in abeyance until February 3, 2022.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
