

RECEIVED

Jan 05 2022

SC Court of Appeals

From: Teresa Waldrop
To: Court Of Appeals Filings
Subject: [Possible Scam Fraud]Ltr to Client re Call from Opposing Counsel 11.04.19.pdf
Date: Wednesday, January 5, 2022 12:38:52 PM
Attachments: Ltr to Client re Call from Opposing Counsel 11.04.19.pdf

 EXTERNAL EMAIL: This email originated from outside the organization. Please exercise caution before clicking any links or opening attachments. ***

WARNING: Your email security system has determined the message below may be a potential threat.

The sender may trick victims into passing bad checks on their behalf.

If you do not know the sender or cannot verify the integrity of the message, please do not respond or click on links in the message. Depending on the security settings, clickable URLs may have been modified to provide additional security.

Honorable Judge Jenny Abbott Kitchings,

This was sent to me and part of the case being appealed. It needs to be shown and wasn't allowed to be shown in court. I did not willingly go into an agreement on this. I was threatened with this letter from my former attorney. I did not understand the true wrong doing in this case until I met with Hudson Law firm. I am a widow and Mother of two adult special needs children and really need to get this case resolved. I can provide you with any medical records as proof of my or their diagnosis. Thank you for time. Teresa Waldrop