AFFIDAVIT

I, Calvin Bryant, #00189164, do swear upon oath, following my parole hearing, an unknown parole employee informed me that I had been denied parole because I had received four (4) votes out of the six (6) members present at the hearing. According to Rose v. South Carolina Dept. of Prob., Parole and Pardon Services, 838 S.E.2d 505, I was improperly denied parole even though I had received the requisite number of votes in favor of parole. I would like for the improper denial of my parole to be reversed pursuant to Boston v. South Carolina Dept. of Prob., Parole, and Pardon Service, 745 S.E.2d 114, and granted in accordance with section 24-21-615 - simple-majority vote and the two-thirds majority vote of the parole board members present at the hearing.
