Appellate Case No. 2020-001708

---

ORDER

Respondents filed a motion to correct the record on appeal and for an extension to file final briefs. After careful consideration, Respondents' motion is granted in part. Within thirty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall file volume six of the record on appeal, which shall include Respondents' proposed index and the missing and incomplete documents identified in Respondents' motion and laid out in the proposed index for volume six. Volume six shall contain no other material or alterations. To the extent Appellant asserts he does not have access to some of the missing documents, Respondents have attached those items to their reply. Respondents shall file their final brief within twenty days of the filing of the corrected record. Respondents' request to substitute their proposed index for the existing index in volumes one through five of the record on appeal is denied.
