

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Rusty M. Dunbar, Petitioner,

v.

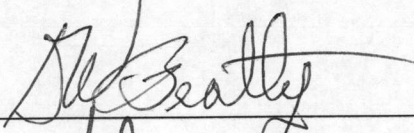

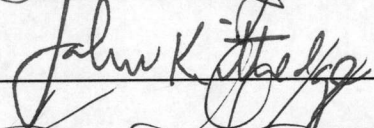

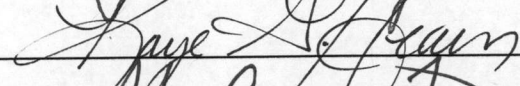

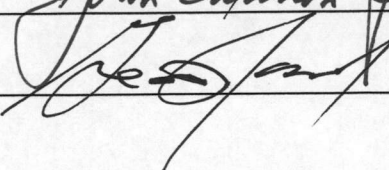

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2021-001281

ORDER

Petitioner's notice of appeal was dismissed based on his failure to file the required Rule 243(c), SCACR, explanation within twenty days of the Clerk of Court's letter requesting the same. Ten days after the expired deadline, the Court received a "brief" from Petitioner that we construe as a petition for rehearing.

We find Petitioner has presented no reason for this Court to reconsider its previous order. See Rule 221(a), SCACR (providing a petition for rehearing must state with particularity the points supposed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the Court). Accordingly, we deny the petition for rehearing.
