

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Donna Boyd, Petitioner,

v.

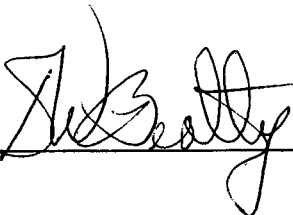

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2021-001235

ORDER

Petitioner filed a notice of appeal from the denial of her third application for post-conviction relief (PCR). Petitioner was asked to provide the explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR, showing there is an arguable basis for asserting the dismissal of her third PCR application was improper. Petitioner has not made a sufficient showing that the dismissal of her PCR application was improper. Therefore, the notice of appeal is dismissed.

In light of the number of PCR applications Petitioner has filed, she was also asked to provide any reasons why this Court should not impose restrictions on her filing of collateral actions or motions in the circuit court challenging her 2014 conviction for filing a false police report of a misdemeanor (Warrant No. 2012A2330204055). Petitioner failed to provide a reason this Court should not impose restrictions on her future filings. Accordingly, we hereby prohibit Petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR actions and habeas corpus actions, as well as any motions relating to the previously filed collateral actions, challenging her 2014 conviction, or any motions in the underlying criminal case, including a motion pursuant to Rule 29, SCRCrimP, without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.
