SC Court of Appeals

Statement of Basis For Appeal From
Guilty Plea Pursuant To Rule 203(d)(1)(B)

I the Defendant believes that my Rights were Violated by being charge with a crime I feel that was not committed within Lexington County. I also feel there has been a tampering of evidence. I feel that my Rights were further Violated by the failure of the state to fully investigate this case as well as and a investigator being appointed on my behalf. I feel these a Violation of my Rights being held within Richland county for such a great period of time because of Lexington County. I feel the Rush of my Lexington Case hurt and/or harm me within my conviction. On the grounds of being refuse this information is also a Violation of my sixth and fourteenth amendment. I have I have address this issue with no response back, what I was told, that's it is human nature I will be convicted anyway, And in refusing to take this plea of guilty. I will receive and entencement of all charges and additional New Charges and I will receive a LWOP. In additionally, I believe that the sentence in my was excessive. Base on the information that was given on how police treats, Coercion + intimidation used to collect a statement. And is the same way the State used intimidation + threats, to produce a guilty plea. The evidence of truth was provided with very little too no assistance in obtaining the information on my behalf from police and/or the courts. These are my desire to litigate these issues in the Appellate Court as well as the association of others.

Blessing to you from Jehovah.

I receive a new letter of Appeals today on March 28, 2013 from Lexington county. I wish to add to this Appeal, my state of Basis for Appeal. I wish to inform you that the Richland County case is tied in with this Lexington county case. In hopes of bringing them back together in my appeal. I wish to ask also. Do my speaking of different tongue and having someone address this issue to me, plays a part within my case, someone meaning: Police, Judge as well as Attorneys? — I ask that you please forward a copy of the statement of Basis for Appeal to Mr. Robert M. Dudek, Chief Appellate Defender and Mrs Jenny Abbott Kitchings of the Court of Appeals clerk of court.

Thank you and God Bless

Sincerely
Eric D. Marsh
