Re: Stivers Brothers Automotive, Inc., Appellant
v.
W. Warner Peacock and Peacock Automotive, LLC, Respondents
Appellate Case No. 2021-001489

Dear Tyler:

Confirming our telephone conversation of earlier this afternoon, this will confirm that it is still the practice of the Court of Appeals to authorize an initial extension of time for filing a return to a motion upon submission of a letter, proof of service, and a $50 filing fee.

As we discussed, I received an email last Friday afternoon just before the three day weekend with a motion for partial dismissal of the appeal. This has already been a short week and I will be out of my office on Friday with my wife for a medical procedure.

I have previously requested and the Court has granted an extension of time until February 17, 2022, for serving and filing the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter. I would prefer to focus on those matters. For these reasons, I am requesting a concurrent extension of time for filing a return to the motion.

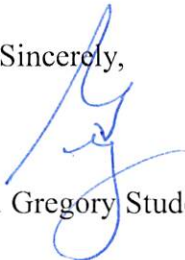

The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings

Enclosed herewith is proof of service of this request together with my check in the amount of $50. Please acknowledge receipt of same and the grant of the extension at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

J. Gregory Studemeyer
