

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Maureen T. Coffey, Respondent,

v.

Community Services Associates, Inc. and George F.
Breed, Jr., Appellants.

Appellate Case No. 2012-213252

The Honorable Carmen T. Mullen
Beaufort County
Trial Court Case No. 2011CP0700013

ORDER

Appellant, George F. Breed, and appellant, Community Services Associates, have each filed a motion asking the Court to allow their respective appellants' initial briefs to exceed the page limit set by Rule 208 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Respondent filed a return requesting that the appellants' initial briefs not exceed 60 pages.

Appellant, Community Services Associates, has also filed a motion requesting to amend certain language in its appellant's initial brief to delete the words "subject matter" in two locations. Respondent has not filed a return.

The motions are granted.

The appellant's initial brief and designation of matter of George F. Breed have been received and are accepted as filed. An amended appellant's initial brief of Community Services Associates, including the changes proposed in its motion, must be served and filed no more than seven (7) days from the date of this order.

The time for serving and filing the respondent's initial briefs and designation of matter is extended until June 19, 2013.
