the relief sought:
a new trial in RE:
Perjury & Withholding of Order Past 30 days

"Appellant, move's the SC Court of Appeals to grant the relief Sought in this matter, being a new trial, based on the Clerk of Court Sue K. Carpenter of Chester, Co, holding appellant's order Past 30 days before sending it to appellant which 100% prejudiced appellant's appeal process. Note: See envelope with no return address of the Clerk of Court's office, thereby making it privilege mail, in which appellant did not have to sign for it as legal mail and no record of what date appellant received the order dated 12-10-21. which was 1-12-22. Also, the order contained perjury stating appellant filing's being the petition for a rehearing did not comply with the 2014 Order, which state's any filing from appellant must contain a notarized affidavit. Note appellant's affidavit in support of the petition for a rehearing is dated. 11-15-21. Thus, making Judge Griffith's order moot, dated. 1-10-22, because of perjury. dated: 1-10-22.

(Grant the new Trial.)

Thank you.
