Good Morning Bryan:

I am going to include two Supreme Court orders that explain the new procedures for filing with the appellate courts. But to answer your question, you are allowed to electronically service opposing counsel, and we do NOT need paper copies unless requested (normally final briefs and the record).

Electronic filing with the Appellate Courts RE: Methods of Electronic Filing and Service Under Rule 262 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules

Reduction of Copies Re: Reduced Number of Copies Required in Appellate Matters

Please do not hesitate to reach out should you have any questions. You may ask for Becky or Kiera at the front desk.

Thank you!

*Just so I'm clear- going forward- can I just "serve the court (you all) and opposing counsel" via email? I wasn't sure since its usually a hard-copy / mail requirement but with COVID, etc. I wanted to see if that's changed.

Dear Counsel:

The Court has received your filing. A stamped copy is attached for your records.

Thank you.

Ms. Kitchings- attached is a copy of the "Notice of Appeal" etc. that was sent out in this matter (along with the $250 check) and the other documents/items referenced on this cover-letter. I wanted to send you all a copy of this via email as well, given all that was going on (COVID, etc.) I wasn't sure of the best way to get this out to you all. Thanks, please let me know if anything further is needed of us as we begin this process!
