V. Claire Allen, Chief Deputy Clerk
South Carolina Court of Appeals

RE: Frankie Padgett v. Cast & Crew Entertainment Services, Inc. and American
Zurich Insurance Company c/o Zurich North America
Appellate Case No. 2019-001254

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am writing to acknowledge receipt of your correspondence dated January 11, 2022, advising this case could be considered for oral argument in May 2022. Pursuant to your instructions, I am writing to advise that I have no conflict with any of the dates proposed by the Court.

However, I will be on vacation during May 11-12, 2022. These dates pose no problem if the oral argument is held virtually. On the other hand, if the Court desires the parties' personal appearance, I would respectfully request protection for May 11-12, 2022. Nonetheless, my scheduled vacation does not pose any conflict whatsoever if the Court elects to schedule the oral argument on May 11 or 12, 2022.

I truly appreciate your consideration and my request for protection for May 11-12, 2022, only if my personal appearance as opposed to a virtual appearance is required.

Very truly yours,

Vernon F. Dunbar
