IN RE CASE 2021-000354
AND 21-cv-02526-TW
mhe

So! The SC Court of

5 of 9

Appeals et. Al.,

The SC Court of Appeals issued App Order to dismiss CASE 2021-000354 dated JANUARY 7, 2022. The Appellant did not receive it until JANUARY 10, 2022. This gives the Appellant 10 days until JANUARY 20, 2022 to motion to vacate that order and motion for a rehearing

6 of 9

This makes this filing timely.
The appellant motions to stay the REMITTANCE. The appellant motions to UNREVERSE the ORDER AND SEEKS A REHEARING due to the CASE falling within the provisions of law where the paying of a filing FEE is not REQUIRED due to the petitioner arguing violations of the US Constitution and laws of 7089

The United States with its statutory provisions that would require the waiving of filing fees. Therefore the appellant motions to vacate the order and motions for a rehearing on the issue of requiring a filing fee.

Additionally the SC Court of Appeals will find the attached petition to remove this state case to case

~~THE~~ ^{WILL} ~~PETITIONER~~ petitions to REMOVE CASE 2021-000354
to be heard under case

9126-CV-02526-THE-MHE.

This matter is already before the SC District Court as a matter filed in the complaint. Therefore, it

6088

cannot be construed as piecemeal litigation where the state case is an intrinsic part of the federal case as is clearly set in the amended complaint. Also a petition to remove pursuant to 28 USC § 1602-

1602 is a separate independent matter to the complaint and by such this is not an Attempt to amend the complaint. The legislatures contemplated late removal under 28 USC § 1602-1612 et seq and not transfer for centralization purposes.
