Chronology.

SC Court of Appeals

Appellant, would like to do the Chronology in this matter. First of all a hearing was held on 11-3-21. in RE: to a Juror committing a viol - Dire violation in Feb, 2008. at appellant's trial, in which the Clerk of Court Sue K. Carpenter did not issue appellant's requested subpoena to Juror #38 Patricia B. Giather, thereby making the proceeding fundamentally UnFair, because appellant could not provide corroborative evidence being Juror #38's testimony under oath as to her occupation in Feb, 2008. at the time of appellants trial. Thus, appellants due process, and Constitutional rights were violated when appellants petition for a rehearing to include Juror #38. along the court ordered affidavit in RE: to a 2014. order and Judge Griffith's order dated. 11-5-21. Was not filed or ruled upon. Note. appellant sent his petition dated. 11-4-21. and affidavit dated. 11-15-21. to Clerk of Court - For Chester, Co, Sue K. Carpenter as an objection and request for a rehearing to include Juror #38. along with a prepaid envelope to send appellant filed copies - instead Clerk Carpenter sent copies back to appellant unfilled which prove's she sent Judge Griffith copies, which is against the rules and likely why he never ruled on the petition and affidavit in hope's that appellant would be too stupid to appeal.
