Dear Ms. Mr. Clerk of Court, I do hope all is well. My appeal has been dismissed and I'm not sure of the next options, but I have been inquiring as you can see by the next page enclosed. I am aware of how time sensitive the procedures are. So I'm reaching out to you all requesting a rehearing, recommitment, sentence reduction, P.C.R. etc... Also how do I request an attorney being myself indigent, even if applications required could you all assist me in these areas, "please" do. Or even would this letter be considered a legitimate request (petition, motion) for this Court.

Thank You All

P.S. Could you respond as soon as possible.

Dear Ms. Mc. Clerk of Court, I do hope all is well. I am not familiar with the the next procedures, but my appeal has been dismissed in the S.C. Court of appeals as of December 8, 2021 and I need any (all) information (applications) pertaining to requesting a rehearing, resentencing, post-conviction relief (PCR) etc... Also how do I request an attorney to ~~with~~ represent myself in these areas or would this letter be a binding request for assistance with you all? I do understand that ~~my~~ any petitions to make is very time sensitive. So if possible could you all ~~at~~ respond as soon as convenient for you all. Thank you so so much.
