This agreement between Robert H. Breakfield, Personal Representative of Estate of Reba P. Hinson, and Kathy H. Huffstickle resolves the matter of certain funds removed by Kathy H. Huffstickle from the bank account of Reba P. Hinson on or about December 28, 2006 in the amount of $260,651.42.

In exchange for the estate electing not to pursue a claim against Kathy H. Huffstickle for interest earned on $260,651.42 from December 28, 2006 to July 27, 2009 and to not pursue the bank interest penalty forfeiture on funds that were removed from the accounts of Reba P. Hinson on December 28, 2006 by Kathy H. Huffstickle, Kathy H. Huffstickle has paid over to the estate the sum of $200,000.00. In addition, the estate will hold an account receivable in the amount of $60,651.42 from Kathy H. Huffstickle which shall be subtracted from her share of the Hinson estate. Therefore, upon the closing of the Hinson estate and the distribution of assets to the estate beneficiaries in lieu of the first $60,651.42 that is distributable to Kathy H. Huffstickle, the receivable will be reduced dollar for dollar until the receivable is extinguished. Thereafter, Kathy H. Huffstickle shall receive her probate share of the estate distribution.

RE: Estate of Reba Pettit Hinson

I understand that on June 19, 2008, James W. Boyd, Esq. notified via fax Steedley J. Bogan, Esq., Bruce M. Poore, Esq., and the undersigned regarding the proposed appointment of John Gettys, Esq. as Personal Representative of the above captioned estate and that, after receiving no response, sent a follow up fax on August 26, 2008.

While my client neither agrees with nor opposes the appointment of Gettys, Robert Harold Brakefield, Esq. of the Rock Hill Bar has consented to serve as Personal Representative and is hereby submitted to the Probate Court for its consideration. Mr. Brakefield's phone number is (803) 329-4920.

I personally believe that Mr. Brakefield would make an excellent choice as Personal Representative of the Estate of Reba P. Hinson, would act promptly and serve efficiently. Therefore, by way of copies hereof to the noted attorneys, I am requesting that responses be made to the Probate Court by September 15, 2008; otherwise, I hereby request that Mr. Brakefield be appointed by the Probate Court.

P.S. Mr. Boyd has confirmed by phone conversation on September 4, 2008 that he has no objective with appointment of Mr. Brakefield.

Yours very truly,

Gregory & Gregory Attorneys

Lois Hinson Griffin and her daughter left these papers – they were told they needed to file the original and have copies clocked (clocked copies of course given back to them)

Shortly thereafter daughter returned asking if she could please check information to make sure it is correct as to names and addresses of heirs which I allowed her to do. I then inquired as to an attorney representing them and she said that would be Gregory and Gregory, Lancaster, SC.

I told them they would need to call back this afternoon for further instructions.

the parents and that she did not inherit any real estate. It was an alternate contention of Kathy H. Huffstickle that she was the only joint child of Levie Hoyt Hinson and Reba P. Hinson so she is the only bodily heir.

It appears that Levie Hoyt Hinson fathered William C. Hinson and John C. Hinson prior to his marriage to Reba P. Hinson. It appears that Reba P. Hinson gave birth to Lois H. Griffin prior to her marriage to Levie Hoyt Hinson. There was conflicting testimony as to whether or not Kathy H. Huffstickle was the child of Levie Hoyt Hinson and Reba P. Hinson. The defense presented witnesses that Kathy H. Huffstickle was actually a child of the sister of Reba P. Hinson. Kathy H. Huffstickle stated that to her knowledge she was the child of Levie Hoyt Hinson and Reba P. Hinson. A birth certificate was introduced into evidence showing Reba P. Hinson and Levie Hoyt Hinson as the parents of Kathy H. Huffstickle.

Item I of the Will lists each of the children of Levie Hoyt Hinson and Reba P. Hinson. I find that Levie Hoyt Hinson intended to leave the real estate to all of the children listed in Item I and used the term bodily heirs in Item II of the Will interchangeably with the children in Item I of the Will. I further find that he intended to include Kathy H. Huffstickle and Lois H. Griffin as children and bodily heirs.

IT IS SO THEREFORE ORDERED

- A. That the amended real estate conveyance of March 8, 2007, is affirmed,
- B. That the real property consisting of 92 acres referred to in the Petition as tax map no 158-0-0-3 is hereby declared to be owned, as tenants in common, by the bodily heirs of Levie Hoyt Hinson,
- C. That the bodily heirs of Levie Hoyt Hinson are hereby declared to be John C. Hinson, Lois H. Griffin, Kathy H. Huffstickle, and the heirs of William C. Hinson, and
- D. That the heirs of William C. Hinson are William Levy Hinson, John Daniel Hinson, Charles Jerry Hinson, Robert Harold Hinson, William

Calvin Hinson, Etta Elaine Hinson, Linda Kay Hinson, and Darrell Wayne

AND IT SO ORDERED,

Re: Estate of Reba P. Hinson Chester County Case

Dear Judge Gettys:

I do certainly appreciate the allowance of my claim to be transferred to circuit court. However, while at the circuit court filing the papers, I looked for two other cases on file concerning the above estate one of which is a partition case, and I found the law firm of Morton and Gettys signed in on one case. For the record John P. Gettys, Jr., is your son and is a full partner in the firm of Morton and Gettys.

Your proposed rulings made at the hearing on Monday directly change my material rights, and directly enhance your son's case. I am not saying that you knew about this before, but now you know. This situation is too close for comfort, and a Judge should not be ruling on a family member's case. And coupled with the fact that you refused to allow your clerks to issue witness subpoenas in the case, I will be appealing your ruling to the circuit court. I would appreciate it if you would just not rule and just let the next Judge handle the matter.

Sincerely,

Mell Woods

Mell Woods,

Appellant,

Robert H. Breakfield, Esquire, as
Personal Representative,

Respondent.

ORDER AFFIRMING
PROBATE COURT

This is an appeal from Probate Court. The hearing on Appellant's grounds of appeal was held on September 8, 2010. In attendance were the Appellant, appearing pro se, and the Respondent and his attorney Mike Brackett. The record from the Probate Court and the arguments of the parties establish the following history: The action involved in this appeal was commenced by the Appellant's Petition for Removal of Personal Representative dated January 22, 2010. Attached to the Petition was a document titled "Motion for Removal of Personal Representative." The Petition identified the grounds for removal as "Misadministration of estate by failing to post bond, and by probating the wrong will." The Motion for Removal identified the grounds as failure to give bond after a demand for bond was made, and other "mis-management items," not identified in the motion with any particularity.

Appellant thereafter filed his "Verified Petition to Vacate the Chester County Probate Court Order Entered in the Above-Styled Case on February 18, 2009; [and] Motion For Removal to Circuit Court.” This pleading was dated February 17, 2010.¹

The Personal Representative filed and served an Answer to the Petition for Removal of Personal Representative. The Personal Representative also filed and served a consolidated Motion to Dismiss the Petition to Vacate Order and a Return to the Motion to Remove the Petition to Vacate to Circuit Court.

The hearing on the Appellant’s two Petitions and related motions was held in the Probate Court on April 12, 2010.² Following the hearing the Probate Judge issued his Order dated April 19, 2010. The Order contained three rulings: (1) it denied the Appellant’s Petition for Removal of the Personal Representative for cause; (2) it denied the motion to remove to Circuit Court the Petition to Vacate; and (3) it denied Appellant’s Petition to Vacate the Probate Court’s February 18, 2009 Order of Formal Testacy.³

In his Notice of Appeal filed on April 30, 2010, Appellant identified two subjects as “partial grounds” for the appeal: (1) the Probate Judge did not recuse himself from the matter when he had knowledge that a family member had some past involvement in the matter, and (2) that the Probate Judge refused to issue subpoenas for witnesses that the Appellant wanted to subpoena to the hearing.

On June 4, 2010 the Appellant filed two “additional grounds” for his appeal: (3) that the probate court erred in not removing the Personal Representative for his failure to provide bond, and (4) that the probate court erred in failing to rule that the wrong will is being probated.

² The hearing was held in York County because the Chester County Probate Judge recused herself from the proceeding and the York County Probate Judge was appointed to serve as Special Probate Judge for Chester County in matters related to this estate.

³ As indicated in footnote 1 above, rulings 2 and 3 were not appealed.

Appeals from probate court to circuit court are heard and decided according to the rules governing appeals to the higher appellate courts. Jean Hoefler Toal, Shahin Vafai & Robert A. Muckenfuss, Appellate Practice in South Carolina 31 (2d ed.2002) and cases cited therein. The circuit court is to apply the same standard of review that the Court of Appeals or Supreme Court would apply on appeal. Id. The hearing in the circuit court must be strictly on appeal, and no new evidence may be presented. S.C. Code Ann. §62-1-308(d).

During the hearing the Appellant, on the record, orally withdrew his ground of appeal no. three, the ground alleging error with respect to bond. The hearing proceeded on the three remaining grounds of appeal.

On the issue of recusal, the record indicates that no motion or request for recusal was made to the probate judge. This subject was not raised to and ruled upon by the trial court and was first raised in the Appellant's partial grounds of appeal. The subject was not addressed in the Probate Court's April 19, 2010 Order, and it was not raised by the Appellant in a Rule 59 motion. Consequently, it is not preserved for appeal. Jean Hoefler Toal, Shahin Vafai & Robert A. Muckenfuss, Appellate Practice in South Carolina 55 (2d ed.2002), citing Hubbard v. Rowe, 5 S.E.2d 187 (S.C. 1939) (questions presented for appellate review must first have been fairly and properly raised in the lower court and passed upon by that court); and I'On, L.L.C. v. Town of Mt. Pleasant, 526 S.E.2d 716 (S.C. 1993) (if the losing party has raised an issue in the lower court, but the court fails to rule upon it, the party must file a Rule 59 motion to alter or amend the judgment in order to preserve the issue for appellate review).

Likewise, on the issue of the probate judge not issuing subpoenas for appellant's use, no objection or motion on the subject was raised at the probate court hearing, the issue was not raised to and ruled upon by the trial court and was first raised in the Appellant's partial grounds of appeal, the issue was not addressed in the Probate Court's April 19, 2010 Order, and it was not raised by the Appellant in a Rule 59 motion. Additionally, the record of the April 12, 2010 hearing reveals that the Appellant did not identify who he would have subpoenaed, nor did he make a proffer of what the witness(es) were expected to offer in the way of relevant and admissible evidence. Consequently, based on the authorities cited above, this ground of appeal was not preserved for appellate review.

With respect to the issue of the Probate Court's decision as to which Last Will was to be admitted to probate, an action challenging a last will is at law. Estate of Hicks, 327 S.E.2d 343 (S.C. 1985). In law cases, this court, as an appellate court, has jurisdiction merely for correction of errors of law and will not disturb the findings of the probate judge unless they are found to be without evidence which reasonably supports the findings. Jean Hoefler Toal, Shahin Vafai & Robert A. Muckenfuss, Appellate Practice in South Carolina 176 (2d ed.2002). In this instance, the Appellant has failed to carry his burden to demonstrate to this Court that the Probate Court committed an error of law in ruling that the decedent's June 23, 1998 last will was to be admitted to probate. Evidence in the record of the April 12, 2010 hearing shows that the admission of the decedent's June 23, 1998 last will to probate was pursuant to a family settlement agreement among the decedent's heirs and/or devisees, not including the Appellant who is a stranger to the estate.

Additionally, the Probate Court's conclusion that the Appellant lacks standing to object to or contest the decedent's last will is well supported by persuasive authorities and precedent.

Quoting from the Probate Court's April 19, 2010 Order:

To have standing, one must generally have a personal stake in the subject of the lawsuit, i.e., one must be a real party in interest. Evins v. Richland County Historic Preservation Comm., 532 S.E.2d 876 (S.C. 2000). A real party in interest is one who has a real, material, or substantial interest in the subject matter of the action, as opposed to one who has only a nominal or technical interest in the action. Sloan v. Friends of the Hunley, Inc., 630 S.E.2d 474 (S.C. 2006). Generally, a creditor of the decedent cannot contest her will. 3 Bowe-Parker: Page on Wills §26.60. Other authorities supporting this principle of law include: 3 Bowe-Parker: Page on Wills §26.52 (one who would not take more if the will in question were held to be invalid than he would take if it were held to be valid cannot, by the weight of authority, contest the will in question); Baker v. Henderson, 69 S.E.2d 278 (Ga. 1952) (if petitioners will not be injured or benefitted by the establishment and probate of the alleged copy will, they are strangers to it and are not proper parties to the litigation); Estate of Keener, 521 N.E.2d 232 (Ill. App. 1988) (even if the latest will was invalid, earlier will failed to name the contestant, so he was not entitled to contest); Matter of Wharton, 453 N.Y.S.2d 308 (1982) (generally a person who is not a distributee of the decedent and who will receive no part of a decedent's estate if a will is denied probate, will not be permitted to file objections to probate. The exception is when a person is named in a prior will and his interest under the prior will is greater than under the propounded will).

Accordingly, for the reasons stated hereinabove, the Chester County Probate Court's Order dated April 19, 2010 is affirmed, the Appellant's appeal is dismissed, and this matter is remitted to the Probate Court for continued estate administration according to applicable law and procedure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In the Matter of the Estate of Reba P. Hinson

Mell Woods,

Plaintiff/Claimant,

v.

Robert H. Breakfield, Esquire, as Personal Representative,

Defendant.

ORDER PARTIALLY DISMISSING CLAIMS

The Defendant's Motion for Dismissal of Claims was heard on September 8, 2010. In attendance were the Plaintiff, appearing pro se, and the Defendant and his attorney Mike Brackett.

It is made to appear to the Court by the arguments of the parties and by the probate court file¹ that Claimant Mell Woods filed a claim against the estate on or about November 9, 2009. The Personal Representative disallowed the claim by notice dated and served November 10, 2009. On December 9, 2009 Claimant filed and served a Petition for Allowance of Claim, a Demand for Jury Trial and a Motion to Remove his action for allowance of claim to Circuit Court. On or about December 24, 2009, the Personal Representative filed and served his Return to Claimant's motion to remove, and filed and served a motion to dismiss portions of Claimant's

¹ In considering a Rule 12(b)(6) motion, the Court may consider items subject to judicial notice without converting the motion to a summary judgment motion, 5B Wright & Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure: Civil 3d §1357, such as matters of public record, Norfolk Southern Ry. Co. v. Shulimson Bros. Co., 1 F. Supp. 2d 553 (W.D.N.C. 1998), and prior judicial proceedings, Briggs v. Newberry County School Dist., 838 F. Supp. 232 (D.C.S.C. 1992), affirmed 989 F.2d 491 (4th Cir. 1993).

Petition. On February 3, 2010, immediately prior the hearing, Claimant filed an "Amendment of Claim" that rendered portions of the Personal Representative's Return moot.

The Probate Court motion hearing on February 3, 2010 resulted in an Order removing the claim proceeding to Circuit Court. The Order expressly provided that "This decision is without prejudice to the Personal Representative's pending motions." The matter was removed to Circuit Court and was assigned the above-captioned case no.

At the September 8, 2010 hearing, the Claimant confirmed on the record that he was proceeding only on the claims as set out in his "Amendment of Claim." The amended claim sets out three separate claims, or causes of action: (1) nuisance caused by alleged illegal discharge of sewage into the lake, (2) conversion resulting from the Personal Representative's probating of the "wrong will," and (3) unspecified damages suffered by Claimant because of actions of attorney Ned Gregory and the Personal Representative.

The nuisance claim is not a subject of the motion to dismiss.

The claim for conversion is based on the Claimant's allegation that the wrong will is being probated, and that by probating the wrong will the Claimant's building will be lost to the remaindermen to the decedent's life estate. The issue of whether the right or wrong will is being probated has already been heard and decided by the Probate Court. In formal testacy and appointment proceedings heard on or about February 17, 2009, the Probate Judge ordered that the decedent's Last Will and Testament dated June 23, 1998 be admitted formally to probate. Consequently, the decision regarding the particular last will that would be probated was the decision of the court and not the Personal Representative. The Claimant was not a party to the February 17, 2009 formal proceedings because he is not a named devisee in any last will signed by the decedent and he had not then filed a claim against the estate. No member of decedent's family appealed from the formal testacy and appointment orders dated February 17, 2009.² Additionally, the issue of Claimant's allegation that the wrong will is being probated was heard by the Probate Court in a separate proceeding in which the Claimant sought the involuntary removal of the Personal Representative on the ground that he was probating the wrong will. In an Order dated April 19, 2010 the Probate Judge concluded, among other reasons, that the Claimant lacked standing to object to or contest the decedent's last will. The Claimant appealed that Order to this Court, case no. 2010-CP-12-0201, and the Probate Court Order was affirmed on appeal.³

In addition to his lack of standing to raise the issue that is the basis of his second cause of action, Claimant is now barred by collateral estoppel and res judicata from relitigating the issue of the right/wrong will.

Under the doctrine of collateral estoppel, once a final judgment on the merits has been reached in a prior claim, the relitigation of those issues actually and necessarily litigated and determined in the first suit are precluded as to the parties and their privies in any subsequent action based upon a different claim. Roberts v. Recovery Bureau, Inc., 450 S.E.2d 616 (S.C. App. 1994).

When claims arising out of a particular transaction or occurrence are adjudicated, res judicata bars the parties to that suit from bringing subsequent actions on either the adjudicated issues or any issues that might have been raised in the first suit. Plott v. Justin Ent., 649 S.E.2d 92, 95 (S. C. App. 2007). Res judicata requires proof of three elements: 1) a final, valid judgment was entered on the merits of the first suit; 2) the parties to both suits are the same; and 3) the subsequent action involves matters properly included in the first action. Id.

² The formal testacy and appointment Orders dated February 17, 2009 are contained in the Form 300 in the Probate Court's estate file.

Accordingly, the second claim alleging conversion due to the probating of the wrong will is dismissed.

The third claim does not allege sufficient facts to constitute an independent claim or cause of action and does not satisfy the pleading requirements of the rules of civil procedure. The third claim is therefore dismissed.

The only claim remaining at this time is the claim alleging nuisance against the decedent's estate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Hand Delivered.

Dear Judge Roddey:

This is in regard to Mrs. Reba Hinson. Mrs. Hinson died late last year and there is nothing on file concerning her estate. Perhaps there is nothing to file, however I have an interest in knowing if the estate is going to be probated. I spoke to you about this several months ago and you checked and verified that nothing had been filed. And I am sure nothing was there on the day I talked to you about this. However since that time, some of the Hinson heirs have been talking about seeing certain papers that have been prepared for filing. If you have any informal letters, papers, documents, or anything that is not in the record yet, please furnish these to me under the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act.

Request for Records Under the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act:

You are requested to release to the undersigned requestor, All the papers, cards, tapes, photographs, maps, books, or other documentary material retained by you in regard to Mrs. Reba Hinson; everything that is filed in the Court Record and is available for public inspection is not meant to be part of this request. Please note that this request is to view and inspect the actual records, but is not a request for copies [at the present time]. The listed records are public and subject to release under current South Carolina statutory and case law; and no record released will be used for a commercial purpose.

We have received your Notice of Appeal in the case noted above. This case will be docketed in the Court of Appeals and all communications concerning this case, including motions and petitions, initial and final briefs, and the Record on Appeal, should be directed to and filed in this Court. For all filings, please note the requirements of Rule 267(a) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, and be further advised that Court of Appeals policy requires the firm name of any counsel shown must be included in his or her address.

We suggest that large parcels such as copies of final briefs and the Record On Appeal be sent directly to the Court via the street address: 1205 Pendleton Street, Columbia, S.C. 29201. Dear Mr. Woods:

This office has received your Notice of Appeal in the above matter. It has been assigned the Case Tracking Number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

I do wish to call the attention of the parties to the attached order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

If the caption of the case contains any of the personal data identifiers listed above, the parties should file a motion to amend the caption to redact the identifier. This should be done contemporaneously with the filing of the notice of appeal or the commencement of the case with the appellate court. Without a motion to the appellate court, the caption of a juvenile delinquency matter from the family court shall be redacted to only use the juvenile's first name and first letter of the juvenile's last name (i.e., In the Interest of John S., a Juvenile.)

A party seeking to seal material beyond those personal identifiers listed above, must file a motion to seal with the appellate court in which the matter is pending. This is true even if the lower court or administrative tribunal may have issued an order sealing the record. Until the motion is ruled on, the clerk of the appellate court shall treat the material as if it is sealed. Parties and counsel are reminded that the standard established in Ex parte Capital U-Drive-It, Inc. and Davis v. Jennings, supra, must be met before any request to seal all or a portion of a record will be granted. Once sealed by order of an appellate court, the materials will remain sealed before the appellate courts unless otherwise ordered by the appellate court in which the matter is pending.

Parties should exercise caution in including other sensitive personal data in their filings, such as personal identifying numbers, medical records, employment history, individual financial information, proprietary or trade secret information, information regarding an individual's cooperation with the government, information regarding the victim of any criminal activity, or national security information.

Attorneys are expected to discuss this matter with their clients so that an informed decision can be made about the inclusion of sensitive information. The appellate courts and their staff will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed; the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed rests with counsel and the parties.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RE: Woods v. Breakfield, as Personal Representative
2010-CP-12-0201 (Appeal from Chester County Probate Court)
My File Number - 12085.1

Dear Judge Goldsmith:

This appeal from probate court was first heard by Judge Newman on September 8, 2010. Mr. Woods, the appellant, objected to going forward with the hearing because the Chester County Probate Court had not then filed its Return in the Circuit Court. Judge Newman directed the Probate Court to deliver its entire estate file in the Reba Hinson Estate to the circuit court courtroom, which it did. The parties argued their respective positions to Judge Newman on September 8, 2010.

By Order dated September 30, 2010, the Probate Court's Order was affirmed and Mr. Woods' appeal was dismissed. Mr. Woods filed a motion for reconsideration on the ground that the Probate Court had not filed a properly certified Return.

By Order dated January 27, 2011, Judge Newman granted the motion for reconsideration. The Order said that the motion was granted, but the January 27, 2011 Order did not alter, amend or vacate the September 30, 2010 Order. With that being the situation, Judge Kinard presided over a term of court in March 2011, at which time he concluded that only Judge Newman could finally decide the reconsideration issue because the September 30, 2010 Order was still in place, subject to reconsideration by the Judge who issued the Order.

I have received a message from Judge Newman's law clerk that Judge Newman is going to issue an amended Order that will amend his January 27, 2011 Order to provide that the September 30, 2010 Order is vacated and that he (Judge Newman) does not retain jurisdiction over the appeal.

I note that you are presiding over a term of common pleas court during the week of May 30. Because of the age of the appeal and its effect on estate administration, my client is anxious to have the appeal heard and decided. The Probate Court has filed its formal Return in the Circuit Court. Is it possible for you to schedule a hearing on the appeal during the week of May 30? For me, anytime
