Re: State v. Janoblin M. Bracy-Brown

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Mr. Bracy-Brown has decided to drop his appeal, as evidenced by the enclosed affidavit. I have reviewed with him the consequences of dropping the appeal and am in agreement with his decision. Because he has been informed of the advantages and disadvantages of pursuing this appeal, I believe he has made his decision knowingly and voluntarily.

I respectfully request that an order be issued dismissing this appeal. By copy of this letter, I am informing Yasmeeen E. Klein, Esquire, of my client's decision.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Wanda H. Carter
Deputy Chief Appellate Defender

AFFIDAVIT

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Janoblin M. Bracy-Brown, who being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the petitioner in the above captioned case.
2. I understand that I am entitled to an appeal of the PCR issues in my case, and that, because I am indigent, I am entitled to the assistance of an attorney from the South Carolina Office of Appellate Defense. I have been informed that if I drop my PCR appeal, then I forever waive those issues that could be raised.
3. In light of the risks which have been explained to me, it is my desire that the South Carolina Office of Appellate Defense drop the PCR appeal formerly filed on my behalf.
4. I have made this decision on my own, with a full understanding of all the possible consequences of this action.
5. I do not wish to appeal.
