FOR DEFENDANT-APPELLANT

AND NOW, comes Defendant-Appellant, Marion L. Driggers, by and through his undersigned counsel, and in support of this Motion for Extension of Time to File

Brief for Appellant, avers as follows:

1. Appellant's brief is currently due on February 3, 2022.
2. The issues in the case are complex and counsel is working diligently to complete Appellant's brief. However, Counsel and staff have been out of the office with personal or family illness, which have hampered counsel's ability to complete the Appellant's brief within the time that is presently available.
3. Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that the Court grant an additional 30-day extension of time for the filing of Appellant's brief.
4. There will be no prejudice to Respondent in granting this additional extension of time to file the Initial Brief, and Appellant does not believe that any additional extension will be necessary or requested.
5. This Motion is made in good faith, and is not sought for purposes of delay but so that justice may be served.

Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 263(b), Appellant requests that the Court grant an additional thirty (30) days within which to file his initial brief.
