Good Afternoon Ms. Hardoon;

Thank you for your prompt response in providing our firm with the required form to complete to request transcripts.

Per your instructions, I have attached the completed form.

Very respectfully,

Michelle McManigal

Due to the increasing spread of COVID variants, our law firm will be taking the following steps to ensure the safety of our clients and our employees. This means we are limiting face-to-face interaction in the following ways:

1. Effective July 29, 2021 all client meetings will be virtual or by telephone.
2. Effective July 29, 2021 our office will be locked to outside guests.
3. Documents that need to be delivered should be sent electronically, via mail, or slipped under the front door of our office (not the exterior door to our building).
4. If you must come to the office (need something notarized or to prepare for a hearing) we will make special arrangements in advance.
5. If you need to schedule an appointment, a special accommodation, or have any questions, please call us at (843) 284-5500

Good Afternoon Ms. Hardoon;

Please allow this email to serve as a request for a copy of the transcript, pursuant to Rule 207, SCACR, for the hearing that was held on November 3, 2021 in the above referenced matter in the Court of Common Pleas in Colleton County.

We are requesting an estimated cost of this service and/or an invoice should you need payment in advance to complete our request.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Very respectfully,

Michelle McManigal
