

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Terrence Wright, #256699 Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2022-000024

---

ORDER

---

After careful consideration, the motion to proceed in forma pauperis is denied. See Ex parte Martin, 321 S.C. 533, 535, 471 S.E.2d 134, 134-35 (1995) ("In the absence of a statutory provision allowing the general waiver of filing fees, we conclude motions to proceed in forma pauperis may only be granted where specifically authorized by statute or required by constitutional provisions."); Sullivan v. S.C. Dep't of Corr., 355 S.C. 437, 443, 586 S.E.2d 124, 127 (2003) (distinguishing between a final determination of parole eligibility from the routine granting or denial of parole to an eligible inmate and explaining the ALC has no jurisdiction over the latter, which does not implicate a state-created liberty interest). The filing fee must be paid within fifteen days of the date of this order.
