The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings,
Clerk of Court,
South Carolina Court of Appeals
1220 Senate ST
Columbia, SC 29201

RE: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Michelle Hodges
Appellate - Case No. 2019-001565

Dear, Ms. Kitchings:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank this Honorable court for its patience in this matter and to ask two questions, in order to eliminate any future deficiencies. The questions are as follows:

- 1) In amending the Record by eliminating the Orders not being appealed, am I just striking those Orders from the appendix and leaving all page numbers as they are or will I have to make a new appendix, change all page numbers and provide the court with 6 copies?
- 2) It was suggested by the court that the Appellant caption read as follows: Michelle Hodges, in her individual capacity and as Personal Representative of the Estate of Ruth Ladson Witherspoon of whom is the Appellant? However, I have never signed any pleadings in this case as the Personal Representative, the Estate is not suing or counter suing Wells Fargo, is not part of my appeal and the Estate can only represented by an attorney. I was called upon in my individual capacity to answer the complaint and I did so because I am the owner of the subject property in my individual capacity only. Is there a Rule of law or statute that requires me to add the Estate as an Appellant? Should this be addressed in my appeal or is this letter sufficient?

Thank you in advance for your response to the above procedural questions.

Respectfully submitted,

Michelle Hodges, Appellant, Pro Se
