

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Darrell Burgess, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2021-001324

ORDER

Petitioner filed a notice of appeal from the denial of his third application for post-conviction relief (PCR). Petitioner was asked to provide the explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR, showing there is an arguable basis for asserting the dismissal of his third PCR application was improper. Petitioner has not made a sufficient showing that the dismissal of his PCR application was improper. Therefore, the notice of appeal is dismissed.

In light of the number of PCR applications Petitioner has filed, he was also asked to provide any reasons why this Court should not impose restrictions on his filing of collateral actions or motions in the circuit court challenging his 2008 convictions of two counts of murder (2005-GS-32-4561; 2005-GS-32-4563) and possession of a weapon during the commission of a violent crime (2005-GS-32-4564). Petitioner failed to provide a reason why this Court should not impose restrictions on his future filings. Accordingly, we hereby prohibit Petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR actions and habeas corpus actions, as well as any motions relating to the previously filed collateral actions, challenging his 2008 convictions, or any motions in the underlying criminal case, including a motion pursuant to Rule 29, SCRCrimP, without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.
