SC Court of Appeals

Dear Mam,

I have an Appellate Case pending NO 2013-000223, I replied with my basis for appeal (the detector opened with an indictment for first degree burglary which was supposed to be second degree burglary due to it being a building where no one dwelled which my public defender did not argue against) on or about 2/25/13. I have not heard anything else from you. I did see a case in the law books where someone else was granted an appeal on these same grounds so I would fully expect my appeal to be granted. I would like to get you to send me a copy of the court transcript.

Thank you Jerry Campbell
