NOTICE OF APPEAL

Shaneeka Monet Stroman appeals the order
[judgement] of the Honorable Walton McLeod dated on February 18, 2022. Appellant

"COMPLAINT" "Appellant"

With the utmost respect to the honorable Judge Walton McLeod I the appellant "disagree" with his disposition of my case. The defendant's attorney was ordered to provide audio and video by law and he failed to do so. During a summary judgement hearing I actually had a witness testify on my behalf that was present the day of the injury, however that is not mentioned in the judge's order. "It says that I never 'answered' the question of being drunk." I actually didn't have to because my witness was able to justify it for me. "Which" wasn't also put in the judge's order. The moral of the story is I had injuries sustained with undisputed facts that was brought up in court, that wasn't mentioned in the judge's order and I feel I should've been entitled to judgement as a matter of law.

Respetfully Yours,
Shaneeka Stroman
