Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Respondent William D. Curtis served his brief on May 30, 2012, which means that Appellant's Reply Brief must be filed by June 9, 2012. We are respectfully requesting an Order from the Court granting Appellant a ten (10) day extension of time within which to file its Reply Brief which would mean that the Reply Brief must be filed no later than June 19, 2012. To that end, I am enclosing the firm's check in the amount of $25.00.

By copy of this letter to Counsel for Respondent, I am advising them of Appellant's request.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.
