Subject: Morris Hutson v. Penn America Insurance Company, 2020-001708 (774-1021A)

Hi Jenny,

I hope you are doing well. We represent the Respondents in the above case involving pro se Appellant Morris Hutson. We have calendared final briefs as due on Monday.

On March 2, Appellant filed a "Request to Withdraw," which we are construing as a motion to dismiss. It is our understanding that pursuant to Rule 240(b), Appellant's Motion will stay the timeframes for perfecting the appeal. Can you confirm this is correct? Alternately, if we need to file a motion to stay the time limits until this motion is decided, we are prepared to do so.

Thank you for your help. I hope to see you soon!

Danielle
