Dear Mr. Victoria:

Your Notice of Appeal and Motion to Compel have been received and filed. As a courtesy to you, a copy was forwarded to the Administrative Judge and to the Solicitor's Office. Enclosed please find a copy of your clocked motions as you requested.

Please note that the Clerk of Court for General Sessions is a filing office and we do not set the motion docket, therefore we cannot provide motion status updates, court dates, or information, nor do we have the authority to make any sort of ruling in the matter. Please be advised that the Clerk of Court for General Sessions does not have the authority to act as your attorney, nor can we provide you with any legal assistance, research, instruction, or advice.

Regarding your question, as of today's date, no order resolving your "Motion for a Preconviction Writ of Habeas Corpus", "Rule 5 Motion", and "Motion to Compel" has been filed with our office as of today's date.
