Second Motion for Extension of Time to Serve and File Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in Record on Appeal

Appellants hereby move pursuant to Rule 263(b) SCACR for a 15-day extension of the time in which to serve and file their Initial Brief and Designation of Matter. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as following:

1. Appellants' initial brief and designation of matter are due Wednesday, March 9, 2022. If this request for an extension is granted, this initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal will be due on March 24th, 2022.

2. This is the second extension of time sought for this deadline and is for 15 days, instead of the customary 30.
3. The undersigned counsel, in addition to his ordinary work schedule, in increase in hearings as the courts continue to open back up from COVID, he also has family medical matters that have taken his attention. This has interfered with his ability to spend the time needed to review the record and draft the brief.
4. Appellant believes there is good cause to grant this extension.
5. The undersigned has served this document on opposing counsel by email to registered AIS email address on the date given below.

WHEREFORE, Appellants pray for an order extending the time in which to serve and file their initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal by 15 days, to March 24, 2022.
