Re: Tarone D. Johnson v. State
Appellate Case No. 2013-000953

Dear Petitioner:

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter:

- No proof of service showing notice of appeal was served on opposing counsel, the Attorney General's office. This Court cannot serve the notice of appeal for you.
- No copy of the complete order(s) on appeal. You will need to send the final order and any conditional order that has been issued in this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2007-08-13-02.htm. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

I have enclosed a copy of the notice of appeal and the cover letter. Due to the number of pages involved, I cannot provide a copy of the other documents you filed without charge. Also, I have enclosed a sample proof of service for a notice of appeal.

Very truly yours,
