Re: Terence L. Rush v. Michael B. Stribble
Appellate Case No. 2021-000817

Dear Mr. Rush:

We received your correspondence dated February 23, 2022 titled "Designation". Upon reviewing this correspondence, it appears that this document is not in accordance with Rule 209(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), which states "The Designation must clearly identify what the party desires to have included in the Record on Appeal, and the Designation may only propose to include portions of the transcript, pleadings, orders, exhibits, or other materials which may be properly included in the Record on Appeal."

Therefore, we are not accepting this filing as the appellant's designation of matter. Within ten (10) days from the date of this letter, you must serve and file the designation of matter pursuant to Rule 209, SCACR. Your appeal will be dismissed if the designation of matter is not served and filed within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Enclosed is an example form of a designation of matter for reference.

Very truly yours,

Catherine J. Fanning, deputy

CLERK
