Re: Keiarra Carr v. SCDEW
Appellate Case No. 2021-001444

Dear Ms. Carr:

The Court is in receipt of your documents that are presumed to be in response to the Court's record on appeal deficiency letter that was dated March 9, 2022. The documents you submitted are not in compliance with Rule 210, SCACR. The designations of matter themselves cannot be included in the record on appeal. Each document that was listed in each party's designations of matter must be compiled into one singular document that is entitled "Record on Appeal." Pursuant to Rule 210, SCACR, "the record on appeal shall be arranged in the following order: the title page, index, orders, judgments, decrees, decisions, pleadings, transcript, charges, exhibits and other materials or documents, and a certificate by appellant. Each page of the record on appeal shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the index." An amended record on appeal that contains the necessary corrections will need to be served and filed. This is the Court's second request for this correction.

The certificate of counsel that was also submitted with these documents is also not in compliance with Rule 210(g), SCACR. The following phrase is to be used for the certificate of counsel: "The undersigned hereby certifies that the Record on Appeal contains all material proposed to be included by any of the parties and not any other material." This is the Court's second request for this correction.

Failure to comply with the Court's requests within ten (10) days from the date of this letter will result in the dismissal of this appeal.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
