You are correct, we only filed a brief in response to the appeal where we also craved reference to other defendants' reply briefs. If that was not sufficient for purposes of appearances and participation in the matter under Court Rules we understand but would ask the reference craved to others serve as inclusion of final briefs.

Ms. Carter- it appears I/my client Access Opportunity South Carolina were left off the list or clients/counsel for the opinion. We did file an initial brief with the Court as respondent and ask the record reflect.
