

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

City of Georgetown, Respondent,

v.

Willie Singleton, Appellant,

Appellate Case No. 2012-212102

ORDER

Respondent filed a motion to strike several matters listed in Appellant's designation of matter and referenced in Appellant's initial brief, alleging the matters were not presented to the trial court. Appellant did not file a return. After careful consideration, Respondent's motion is granted. See Rule 210(c), SCACR ("The Record on Appeal shall not . . . include matter which was not presented to the lower court or tribunal."). Within thirty days, Appellant shall serve and file an amended designation of matter, which excludes items (8) through (16), and an amended initial brief, which excludes all references to the items stricken.

Appellant's motion for an extension of time to serve and file his initial reply brief is granted. Appellant's initial reply brief shall be served and filed within thirty days.
