Re: Larry Rahn v. Barbara Smith
Appellate Case No. 2020-000607

Madam Clerk:

Pursuant to an Order of the Court dated February 11, 2022, Appellant's Motion to Consolidate was granted, and the written correspondence that enclosed this Order stated that time for serving and filing Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter would expire thirty (30) days from February 11, 2022. Upon receipt of the correspondence and Order, counsel for Appellant informed the Court that we were still waiting for one of the two transcripts that were ordered and that the time for filing briefs has not yet begun to run under Rule 208, SCACR which would make initial briefs due 30 days after receipt of the transcripts.

As of the date of this status update, counsel for Appellant is still waiting for the transcript and the deadline to receive this transcript is March 22, 2022. Once the transcript has been received, we will notify the Court of the same. If anything further is required, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Very truly yours,

THURMOND KIRCHNER & TIMBES, P.A.
